Sir William Meredith Insists Upon Having Windows Open.

Toronto, April 7.—Chief Justice Sir William Meredith likes plenty of fresh air and insisted upon having the windows of the non-jury court room open yester(xy whilst hearing the evidence in the Hawes-Beatty suit. The court stenographer feit e draught and appealed to his lordship to have the windows closed, but the only consolation he got from the know, were Wall, if you deep? When it was necessary that the work be done so that a cement waik could be built. He intends opening the property up for building purposes.

Mr. Flatt asked that the roadways on Beulah and Mount Royal avenues be fixed up. Chairman Allan explained that the best the Board of Works could do was pave Beulah avenue. The estimated cost of fixing up Mount Royal ayenue is about $700. Mr. Flatt agreed to pay $400 of this, and it was decided to do the work. but the only consolation he got from the bench was: "Well, if you don't like it move around to the other side." As this would have prevented the stenographer from hearing the evidence he had to stay in the draught and may possibly be laid up-with an attack of influenza.

A BRAVE RESCUE. Chatham Boy Named Naftel Saved

From Drowning. Chatham, April 6.-Knyvett Naftel, Chatham, April 6.—Knyvett Nattel, the five and a half year old son of E. J. Nattel, yesterday afternoon while playing on the river bank fell into the Thames. His playmates summonded Samuel Orr, who, though only recently recovered from a serious attack of pneumonia, plunged into the river and held the boy above the surface till aid came. Only after hours of strenuous work by physicians, nurses and others did the little boy regain consciousness.

VINDICATES INSPECTOR. Commissioner's Report on East Elgin Inquiry.

Toronto, April 7.—Mr. Endo Saunders, K. C., the commissioner who conducted the inquiry into the license affairs in East Elgin, extending over the past three years, has submitted his report, which was laid on the table of the House yesterday.

terday.

The report wholly vindicates the conduct of Mr. W. R. Andrews, the local license inspector. It finds hat David Butler, the then holder of a tavern license at Orwell, was properly convicte on the charge of keeping a disorder! house in August, 1906, and that ther house in August, 1906, and that there was no conspiracy in connection with the laying of the charge or conduct of the case, aimed at Mr. W. F. Hepburn, who at that time was Liberal candidate for the Commons in the riding. The commissioner finds that "Hepburn was the victim of his own indiscretion rather than of any conspiracy against him, and that the charge against the inspector cannot be sustained."
