THE TURKISH GENTRY AT HOME.

Review of a new Book "The Creexent; with Pictures of Haren Life: or the Turks in 1884."

By Gordon Tenery, Eag. London's By the Editor of Chamber's Journal.

In travellers contradict each other flatty in matters of fact—in matters depending on the testimony of their own eyes and ears—it is no wonder they should take opposite sides in the question either of individual or national character. But there is something that puzzles us. If we were told that the Turks, like other people, had redeeming qualities, we could understand; but when an author gravely assures us that they have no positively bad qualities to redeem, we do not know what to make of it. Mr. Trency is that author. With him, the sole drawback in the character of a Turkish gentleman is the want of what he calls spirituality; while a Turkish Lady would be perfection itself, were it not that her heigher native is obscured by a little ignorance. Bits book describes the life of the harem—the Turkish pould with a sweet smile, which smile did not relation to the second pound of the propositively bad qualities to redeem, we do not know what to make of it. Mr. Trency is that author. With him, the sole drawback in the character of a Turkish guntleman is the want of what he calles spirituality; while a Turkish Lady would be perfected in the cales appears at the command of the remaining to the propositively bad qualities to redeem, we do not know what to make of it. Mr. Trency is that author. With him, the sole drawback in the character of a Turkish guntleman is the want of what he calles spirituality; while a Turkish Lady would be perfected in the calles and the command of the remaining to the remaining to the care and the calles point to the propositively bad qualities to redeeming qualities, we could understand; but when an author of what he calles appears at the calles and the calles which, likewise, the surrounding courts are parted; and its the constructed on strictly asset, but size gentlemanily of a certain Mustapha Effont on the descent, the which, likewise, the surrounding courts are parted; and in the midst of these is and terrace of of gold-fishes. The one into which, likewise, the surrounding courts are parted; and in the midst of these is and terrace of of gold-fishes. The one into which was not constructed on the construction of the construction

"Through the speciformed in the decrease, the specific property formed in the decrease the specific property formed in the decrease the specific property formed in the decrease the specific property of the property of the specific property property property property prop

PROSPECT SCIENTIFIC A

ELEVENTH Y The Proprietors of the Scie pectfully give notice, that the Volume of their Journal will of American Application

THIS work differs materially tions, being an Illustrated hiefly to the promulgation of the various Mechanic and Cl to the various Mechanic and C Manefactures, Agriculture, Engineering, Millwork, and all light of Practical science is cal The Scientific American is pronvenient quarto form for bin elegant typographical appears contains eight pages of rending ted with original engravings. patented discoveries are delinitis issues, so that, as respects justly regarded as an Illustrated inventor may learn, what has in the same field which he is. inventor may learn, what has in the same field which he is he may bring to the world a achievements.

Reports of U. S. Patents gradevers of U. S. Patents gradevers, including O Patent Claims; these Claims Scientific American in advance of the Control of the The Contributors to the Sc among the most eminent, scient of the times. The Editorial sally acknowledged to be condu-and to be distinguished, not of of the times. The Editorial sally acknowledged to be condutand to be distinguished, not cand truthfulness of its discussioness with which error is combare exploded.

Mechanics, Inventors, Engin facturers, Agriculturists, and y sion in life, will find the Scient great value in their respective and suggestions will save the annually, besides affording the of knowledge, the experience Pecuniary estimate.

Terms of Subscription, $3

HASZARD & OWEN, A

A T the Tannery of Mr. Jo Journeyman Currier; A Boot and Shoemakers. Call St. Peter's Road, 64 miles fro Charlottetown, July 27, 18

JUST RECEIVED, per S Halifax, and for Sale STORE, a splendid LOT OF TEA, SUGAR which will be Sold Wholesale

Southeast end of the H the corner of Great George and o that occupied by Messrs. G The cellar is 24 feet by 50 is over 7 feet deep and is p on the first floor a shop 20 fo in depth; also a front Entran shop and two other aparime second floor one room 24 for 15 and two about 11 feet by nearly corresponds with t three rooms on the fourth floo

tion may be obtained by app

Horbour, the Rivers and the is also attached to the premand it is one of the best Mrcantile or any other bus

FREEHOLI

FOR SALE, Lot 42, as h Township No. 55, boun between Townships No. 55 acres of Land. It is near South side of the Island, as Wood. For further particul Recreation, Sept. 27th, 1

TO MIL Camel Hair B HASZARD & OWEN announcing to their creceived this day, a new st 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7, which the cent below former prices.

THAT beautifully situated as the Subscriber's, it can a high state of cultivation years, the yearly reut is £5 are on the premises a large t are on the premises a large :
a large and convenient Ban and an out-house for a Gras
Also,—A small farm, co hold land, situate in Princ few chains of the Daraley tioned properties are well persons wishing to purchase enquire of