

Rompers

4 to 12

Made of Chambray, Gingham, etc., 2 to 6 years at 65c, 75c and $1.00

Prices 85c and $1.00 per pair

Boys Overalls Brown also Blue with white stripe,

at 75c, 96c and $1.00

A. H. MACKAY

$1.50, 2.00 and 2.50 Boys Waists Made of Print, Chambray, etc. Priced at 65c, 75c, 90c and 1.00 Boys Summer Jérseys In Navy Blue and Dark Brown, sizes 24 to 32 Priced at 60c and 65c weather prevailed. There was the usual influx of vis-The opening and dedication of the tors from neighboring towns and country districts, that such an occanew Methodist Church at English Settlement took place on Saturday tion calls for. Business was practicand Sunday 26th and 27th inst. ended during the afternoon, On Saturday evening at 7.30 o'clock ally susp many of the mills, stores and offices a public meeting was addressed by closing to permit young and old to Rev. Dr. Heartz of Nova Scotia, and see the show. The customary parade was held in the morning and the af-mer plators of the congregation. tended. The numerous other attrac-tions in connection with the circus was held and the address was delivered by Rev. Dr. Steele, Superinten dent of Missions. were also liberally patronized. Just as the Big Show was over in the afon a heavy thunder and light-At 2.30 p. m. Public Worship was held, the sermons being delivered by ning storm accompanied by rain set Rev's H. Harrison and J. A. Ives. Worship was also held .30 p. m. Sunday evening and an sermon was preached -b Rev. Dr. Heartz. Each service was largely attended. The offerings at the above services are to be used for the clearing off of the balance of debt now on the new edifice. The perseverence of this congregation in building their new church is a most remarkable one, and worthy of imitation and adoption by many other congrega-tions. Last summer the congrega tions. Last summer the congrega-tion decided to build a new church, and two weeks after the decision to do so was arrived at, the basement they placed their cance. At Upper was dug, foundation laid and work on the framework was begun. The the forpe of the running water and co-operation on the part of the mem. were unfortunate enough to lose all bers was such that the work the more than the territory to the combine co-operation on the part of the mem-bers was such that the work was made easy and the building was rushed to completion. The labor was all done by members of the congregation free of charge and without food, arriving there on Sun-the value of such would amount to day. They came to Newcastle by about $1500.00. The cost of the automobile on Monday morning and church irrespective of the labor amounted to $3677 64, and the whole amount up to Saturday evening June 26th had been paid off with the exception of $628.38. The col-lections received at the services on Sunday were as follows: Moraing service $145.47. alternoon service $14640; Expining Service $86,86, making a grand total collection for the day of $378.73, and reducing the debt now on the church to the insignificant amount of $249.65. This represents the full much been all accounts outstanding have been all accounts outstanding have been all accounts outstanding have been weather was ideal for a function of this nature and many disitors from Newcastle and surrounding districts notored to the settlement to take part in the proceedings. The church is built on a beautiful site, is theatre Wednesday, was first modem in every respect and the ten as a spectular melodrama congregation is to be congratulated produced in the Drury Lane theatre Mr. Rowlands the pastor, at the evening service thanked the laborers for their work on the building, estructually mentioning Mr. Allan Hippodrome is to New York. Only Whitney and Mr. Ernest Tozer, who plays of such mammoth proportions were the chief builders, Mr. Alex. Hare the painter, Mr. Jackson Baisley who was the means of securing the bell, Mr. Kiah Copp, the Threasurer, Mr. Herbert Phair, the Secretary, Mrs. Wm. Waye, the Collector, the Ladies and the Trussees of the congregation. During

Viola Dutcher, Elizabeth Jardine, Cora Weldon, Vera Geikie, Irene Hill, John Keating, Bertha Copp. Dickson ashford, Hannah Muer, Sandy Suth-erland, Elizabeth Hill, Harold Whyte, Martha Hill, Hugh Wood, Helena Harris, Cora Whitney, Cora McCulum.

Prize for General Proficiency Grade VI. donated by Mrs. James Stables won by Margaret Stables. Promoted from Grade IX. to X. in rder of merit. Reta Blackmore and Gordon Petrie

Jessie Harris, Adelaide Blackmore, Russell, Clare Charlotte Gillis O'Donnell, Annie Ashford, Dick Corbett, Mildred Ross, Gladys Ronan, Promoted conditionally -- Fred Mc Cormack , and James Sargeant.

ANGLERS HAVE EXCITING TIME

F. E. Kahn of New York City, Mr. with David Ogilvy of Oxbow as guide went up the Tobigue River on a fishing trip last week, and crossed over from the Tobigue River to the Little South West Miramichi Lake where their provisions, tents and cooking utensils. They were 25 miles from the nearest settlement and were ob liged to walk this distance to Forans Mr. Kahn took the Ocean Limited for New York. Before leaving, Mr Kahn made arrangements with Mr Edward Menzies to come on or about September 10th for a fishing and hunting trip in the Tracadie section.

DRURY LANE HOME OF BIG PRODUCTIONS

'The Sporting Duchess'' First Staged In London

"The Sporting Duchess," which will be shown at the Happy Hour writspectular melodrama to be Rowlands the pastor, at the nowiped for the stupendous produc-tions service thanked the labor tions that have been staged, there. The theatre is to London what the Hippodrome is to New York. Only that few ordinary playhouses could produce them are seen there. Druny Lane is also noted for its, famous Christmas pantomimes, form of entertainment seldom seen in this country. Until the advent of motion pictures pantomime was sad-

We Invite You to Our Gift Giving

Twenty-seven years ago we started business in a small store. Now we have the largest Ready-to-Wear Establishment on the North Shore. We are not ungrateful. We appreciate the fact that it is your loyal patronage, your hearty support that has made this growth possible, and we wish to show that appreciation in a most emphatic manner. So we are celebrating this twenty-seventh birthday. Celebrating it for ten days

Beginning Thursday, June 24 Ending Saturday, July 3

Every customer purchasing from $1.00 up, during the next ten days, will receive the above Silver Plated Butter Knife.

