HAS NOT RESIGNED

License Inspector Ayearst Says Probe Can't Come too Soon.

Rumors to the effect that J. A. Ayearst, chief inspector of the License Department, had resigned his position in addition to being suspended by the Government were given their quietus yesterday by Hon. W. D. McPherson, Provincial Seretary.

"Has Mr. Ayearst resigned?" was asked Mr. McPherson. "I have not received any such resignation," was the reply.

"If it were tendered, it would be for you, would it not?" "Probably."

Mr. Ayearst still visits the License Department daily, although he is not discharging his former duties as Chief Inspector. The only statement he would be willing to remain in office—investigation cannot come too soon to suit him.

TALKS WITH THE DEAD

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle Convinced of Communications With Soldier Son.

London, March 27.—Sir Conan Doyle possesses letters which, he claims, "prove the survival of, and communion with the dead beyond the shadow of a doubt."

A representative of The Daily Mail found these papers to consist of letters from correspondents relating their experiences with a medium ne had recommended to them. All these correspondents, who live in different parts of the country, have lost near relatives or dear friends in the war, and out of twenty-six attempts to communicate with these dead only two were failures, Sir Conan said.

Both Sir Conan and Lady Doyle are fully convinced they have actually communicated with their son, who also died in active service.

The housing problem was again entered into and was handed over to the Council to act upon.

The pipe line was also discussed, but owing to the Water Commissioners feeling inclined to think that Thorold was intruding on them, the matter was left in abeyance.

BIG CROWD ON I.O.D.E. NIGHT AT GRIFFIN'S

Splendid Programme Rendered Last Night Which Was Much Enjoyed —Mayor Congratulated the Ladies

The Daughters of the Empire held a most successful entertainment in Griffin's Theatre last night. The place was crowded to the doors, and those who attended were delighted with the program. The opening number was the usual photoplay of the Griffin bill. The Regents of the different chapters with their standard bearers, Mayor Elson and Mr... Inksater then occupied the plotform and the program was opened by the singing of "O Canada..." led by Mr.. Inksater..

Mayor Elson was chairman for the evening.. He congratulated the Daughters of the Empire for the splendid work they had done during the four trying years which have now passed away and were like a memory. During those years nearly $13,000 had been raised for patriotic purposes by the St. Catharines Chapter.

The Lord Tennyson Chapter has provided historical pictures for the public schools besides doing a large outside educational and patriotic work The Military Chapter has interested itself particularly in the soldiers' dependents and all things military..

The Rose, Thistle and Shamrock has confined most of its work to the navy. The Daughters are now planning a memorial to the departed heroes through their educational work.

He congratulated the Daughters on the excellent work they had already done, and felt sure that in the future they would stand ready to do any kind of patriotic work.

VOCAL PROGRAM.

Mrs. J. M. Elson then delighted the audience with a solo, 'Spring Song." She was accompanied by Mr.. English and the first violinist...

A pleasing number was a dance by Miss Pringle, which was exceptionally clever and called forth hearty applause,, and a second number was given, which was equally as graceful and artistic.

Mr. Inksater, who is always o favcrite, song "Cherry Song." and all joined in the chorus. This number was exceptionally well rendered and keenly enjoyed.

Proposal to Limit Operation of Law to December 31st. Was Rejected in House of Commons ..

(Special to The Journal)

London, March 27.—The miltary service bill passed through the report stage without amendment in the House of Commons yesterday. The proposal to limit the operation of the bill to Dec. 31st., 1919, instead of April 30th., 1920, was rejected by a vote of 282 to 70 and another amendment excluding the liability to service in Russia from the scope of bill was voted down 281 to 48. In declining to accept this amendment, Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary for War, said the government ha no intention of raising a large conscript army to be sent to Russia. They were ordered to do so by the Canadian Railway War Board this morning. The order from the War Board states that the change will be made at 2 a.m. on Sunday morning.

A CORRECTION ..

Through an error the Journal misquoted Ald. Riffer in the report of the proceedings of Tuesday night's meeting of the City Council in so far as saying that there was an agitation among the manufacturers for a reduction of the tariff.

The statement made by Ald. Riffer was that the farmers of the Western Provinces were agitating for a change in the tariff and that the manufacturers do not are to make a move towards branching out until it is understood definitely what the Government will do in the matter.

RAILWAYS TO HASTEN VOTE ON THE BILL

Daylight Saving Situation Aggravated by Decision of the Roads to Change Time on Sunday.

(Special to The Journal)

Ottawa, March 27.—Daylight saving and its continuance during the present summer will probably be left to Parliament for decision. It is likely that the question will come up in the House today on Mayor Cooper's motion that "It is expedient to re-enact at once." the daylight saving bill of last year. When daylight saving came before the Government caucus strong objection was raised to its continuance and in view of the opposition raised it was decided that summer-time be dropped. The fact that Canadian Railways will be compelled to conform with American summer-time has however, complicated the situation. It is therefore considered likely that an early opportunity will be given for a vote in the House on Major Cooper's motion and a final decision reached in accordance with the result.

PROUDFOOT TO REMAIN IF THE PARTY URGES

Liberals of Ontario Have Not Yet Called a Convention to Select a Leader.

Several Liberal members yesterday denied that any decision has been arrived at with regard to the calling of a convention for the selection of a new Provincial leader. At the time of the appointmnt a mute over a year ago, it was agreed that a convention would be called at some future date to select a permanent leader and it was on this assumption that Mr. Proudfoot accepted the reins of temporary power. It is now intimated that he would be willing to remain in office, if urged to do so, by a representative convention. Liberals in the Ontario House state, however, that the question of a change in leadership has not yet been considered, nor has any proposal been made for the calling of a convention.

Rumor has hinted at several successors to Mr. Proudfoot, among these Hartley Dewart, member for South-West Toronto, Major (Rev.) J. G. Tolmie, the "fighting parson" of Windsor, a Presbyterian clergyman, who has seen service overseas, and F. Wellington Hay, member for North Perth.
