

At College Hall.

MISS BEWLEY'S SECOND RECITAL.

If applause may be taken as an evidence of approval, then Miss Bewley had her share to the full last night, and she deserved it all, for her work was akin to perfection, and by the time she had completed her sketch, she had won every heart. Her selection of "Polly of the Circus" for her second performance was in good taste, and the piece is such as has in it a highly moral tone, and is free from anything whatever of an unduly sensational character. Several clowns were reached during the recital, and every point made was grasped by the audience, but we think that we but express the opinion of all who were present, when we say that her intonation and emphasis of the quotations from the story of Polly were the master-pieces of the evening. They were an interpretation. Among the other numbers of the evening that of the Ships was the best rendered, and was the most impressive, but they were all choice, and gave ample room to the ability of the kindly and pleasing performer. Mr. Lennox's singing was much in his favor. Like the previous performance his rendition of The Torreador Song was his best effort and his five pieces were in keeping with the dignity of the College Hall. Mr. Lennox, Mr. Allen and Miss Bewley may feel justly proud of their work, and should the fair young lady again favor St. John's with her presence, there will await her all the patronage and appreciation that she deserves. In speaking with her last night we were pleased to learn that she has received much kindness from our people, and that in her future travels, and especially in her home in sunny Tennessee, she will foster memories of the most happy of her visit to Terra Nova.

Printer Gets Hurt.

While riding a bicycle over President Street about seven o'clock last evening, Robert Murphy, linotype operator at the Evening Herald Office, lost control of the machine, came over the incline at a rapid rate and crashed into the brick building of the Royal Stores Clothing Factory on Duckworth Street. The victim struck violently and lay senseless on the street, with blood flowing copiously from a mass of cuts that were inflicted on his head. A number of fellow workmen ran to his aid and hurried him to Dr. Anderson's surgery. After receiving treatment, Murphy was able to walk home but could not resume work as he was badly shaken up. He had a narrow escape from very serious injury.

The Prince's Train.

A special train left here in charge of Conductor Howlett at 7 p.m. yesterday for Bay St. George. The private car Terra Nova was on, and there went forward His Excellency the Governor, Capt. Beech, A.D.C., Mr. H. D. Reid, and Mr. H. H. Russell. The party has gone to meet Prince Albert and the officers of H. M. S. Cumberland, and will spend several days salmon and trout fishing with them on the West Coast.

Rolled Over Hill.

Last night while grazing on the Southside Hill, a horse owned by Edmund Simms, went too near the edge of an embankment, and rolled over the steep incline a distance of 60 feet. The beast was not hurt much but it went in under Mr. Cranston's house at the rear becoming tightly jammed and from 5 a.m. to 8 a.m. until 8 Constable O'Neil, with a gang of men were at work getting the beast out of its position. They had to use tackle and prizes to free the animal.

Here and There.

Mrs. McDonald, wife of Dr. McDonald, left here by the Bruce express Monday for Gambo to join her husband, who went there last week.

SICK PEOPLE ARRIVE.—George Ralph, of Clarke's Beach, ill of chest trouble and Mr. Doyle, of Gull Island, C.B., suffering from nervous debility, arrived here by the train last night and were taken to the hospital by Mr. E.H. Whiteway.

ENGINE REPAIRED.—Engine 100, which was in the big fire the other shops on March 13th, came out on the rails yesterday. The engine was thoroughly repaired, is in fine condition and will be sent out on one of the branch lines.

CANT GET FIREMEN.—The Belvedere and Bonaventure did not sail last night for Halifax, as was expected, owing to a sufficient number of stokers to supply both ships not being available.

LINTROSE'S PASSENGERS.—The Lintrose arrived at Port aux Basques at 6:05 a.m. to-day bringing R. G. and Mrs. Reid, Miss S. Gosling, Miss K. E. McLean, Master C. Bell, Miss J. Clarke, Mrs. S. Arnold, Miss M. S. Packard, Miss Petten, C. C. Maxin, W. Pettie, H. Wright, R. B. Gillette, J. F. Chaplin, Miss G. R. Maxin, Miss McLean, Mrs. J. S. Moore, J. J. Mount, M. E. Cummings, Father Brown, E. M. Sweeney with a few second class.

SAILOR ARRESTED.—Yesterday afternoon a "blackjack" was in transit on the Sardinian and is to be transferred to the Niobe, created trouble on Water Street. He attempted to assault Sergeant Savage and later Constables Porsey and Loder. Jack made a mistake in these two and thought he fought hard was manhandled and rushed to the station. He was liberated and placed on board the Sardinian before she sailed.

WHERE'S THE REGISTRAR OF SHIPPING?

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—In your paper a couple of days ago, I noticed a reference to the Registrar of Shipping, T. R. McGrath. I would like to ask where this fellow is at present. I have been told since that he has gone south in a sailing vessel on the official fact this means that this official from the time he was laid off until he returns will be about five or six months away from his office. I would further like to ask is he, while away, receiving his salary, and if so is the Premier aware of it? It is about time that taxpayers of this country put a stop to this kind of outrage. There are other officials in the civil service superior to T. R. McGrath, who never required a wet nurse, and they cannot get a day to go fishing if they wanted it, and they could be sick unto death but no junketing excursion for them.

It is about time that such favoritism ceased. This is the so-called People's Party and People's Premier, who were going to give us fair and equitable dealing in the departments whereas nothing but pull prevails. The McGraths seem to be running things to suit themselves, but it can be easily seen where they are heading the Government for.

Yours truly,

LONG ROOM.

St. John's, June 17, 1913.

FIGHT ON FOOTBALL FIELD.

Whenever there is a large attendance at a football field there should be police protection in evidence. During the progress of last evening's game a row occurred between two young men who disagreed in their views. In a heated mood they were seen to argue the matter but decided to settle the dispute with fists. A free fight ensued, whilst the game was impeded by scores of boys who were running back and forth the field.

A PLEASANT EVENT.

One of the most enjoyable events of the half holiday, will be the society comedy to be produced in the Aula Maxima to-night, under the patronage of His Excellency the Governor, and His Grace the Archbishop, and under the auspices of the Ladies' Association of St. Bon's. The acting is good the situations mirth-provoking, and a first-class volunteer orchestra will supply appropriate music. Those who attend may rest assured that they will spend a very pleasant evening.

BIG NICKEL TO-DAY.

The Nickel was crowded again last night notwithstanding that it was the second performance. To-day there will be a holiday programme when four full reels of pictures will be given. The first show is at 2.30.

BURTON WILL COMMAND SHAMROCK IV.

London, June 7.—W. P. Burton, who has been chosen to command the Shamrock IV, Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger, for the America's Cup, is one of the best-known and accomplished of England's amateur yachtsmen. He has sailed in over a thousand races during his yachting career, which extends over a period of 30 years. His sailing of the Shamrock IV will be the first time that an amateur ever has sailed a Lipton challenger for the America's Cup.

THEY BOXED IN A FLORAL CIRCLE.

London, June 9.—To-night Georges Charpentier, who has been in turn the lightweight and middleweight boxing champion of Europe, and who now holds the heavyweight championship, made his English debut in a local theatre. He sparred three rounds in a circle of flowers held by show girls, and was given a tremendous ovation. Bombardier Wells, the British heavyweight champion, jumped out of a box and onto the stage, where he challenged the Frenchman to another fight. Wells offered to post a side bet of $5,000. Announcement of its acceptance is expected in a few days.

CANDLE TO LAST 3,000 YEARS.

A Harlem firm is making one of the largest candles ever constructed. The order for the candle has been placed by the congregation of the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Jersey City, who intend to forward it to the Vatican to be lighted on feast days in the memory of Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan.

The candle will cost $200, gold leaf to be used costing $50. Approaching 400lb. in weight, the candle which is sixteen feet in height, would last for nine years if burning continuously, and burning on one day in each year would last for nearly 3,000 years.

Cadets Win—Luck of Time Prevents A Draw.

Before a large gathering of onlookers, mostly brigade supporters, the second football match of the Inter-Brigade series came off on St. George's Field last evening. The opposing teams were the N. H. and C. C. C. Whilst the Cadets won by 3 goals to 2 yet the game was evenly contested and gave good value for a draw. Conditions were unfavourable for a good exhibition, as the wind was unusually strong. The Highlanders lost the toss and had to play against the wind. At the opening the Cadets began hostilities. Their rushes were repulsed by the kilties who tried to get west but could not get beyond midfield owing to the strong breeze. In fact whenever the ball would be driven in the air the wind would frequently carry it out of the arena altogether. Play was confined to Highlanders' territory and the Cadets pressing hard notched up three goals.

In the second half after changing ends the kilties had matters their own way. They controlled the ball much better than their opponents with the wind. After five minutes of play Watts scored the first goal. A lively exhibition was then witnessed but the Highlanders assumed the aggressive again and succeeded in getting another goal. Keeping up a fast pace the Highlanders bombarded the Cadets goal. Phelan saved many difficult shots. The kilties continued the onslaught and spectators expected they would score the equalizing goal but luck was against them and when the final whistle sounded the score stood—

C. C. C., 3 goals; N. H., 2 goals. Highlanders—Goal, Rennie; backs, Chaney, Luscombe; halves, Searle, "bancoy" Auchinleck; forwards, Sinclair, Morris, McGraw, Watts, Lidstone.

C. C. C.—Goal, H. Phelan; backs, J. Walsh, Thompson; halves, Christopher, W. Hart, Kavanagh; forwards, Hart, Reardigan, F. Phelan, Evans, Woods.

CRAZE FOR TREASURE

Still Going On.

The craze for the so-called treasure at Bennett's Grove is on the increase, and a syndicate of twelve men are sparing no pains in searching for it, as every evening they are hard at work digging and excavating in the hope of unearthing the coins. Scores of people visit the place continually and watch the prospectors at work with amusement. The principal of the syndicate tells that the treasure was buried by pirates years ago and that he knows exactly the spot and how many feet under the surface of the earth the treasure was hid.

TRAWLERS DOING WELL.

Prospects of a good fishing voyage in Cape St. Mary's Bay are bright. The Cape fleet are reported to be doing exceptionally well. Every day last week trawlers were kept busy as codfish were in abundance and an average of thirty quintals were secured.

PASTOR REFUSES $10,000 SALARY.

London, Ont., June 13.—Rev. Richard Whiting, the retiring pastor of the First Methodist Church, to-day refused a salary of $10,000 from a large American commercial concern. Mr. Whiting will assume his duties in the pastorate of Young Memorial Methodist Church at Winnipeg, at the end of the present month. He declined to retire from the ministry.

KATMAI VOLCANO IS AGAIN IN CONVULSION.

But the Alaskans of Seward View the Eruption Without Alarm.

Seward, Alaska, June 9.—Although a west wind has been driving smoke and fumes from Katmai volcano over Seward, no alarm is felt here. There are four craters on the mountain giving vent to the internal convulsions, but a terrific outburst like that of last year is not expected. It is believed, however, that Katmai will continue to emit vast columns of smoke indefinitely. The fumes from the smoking mountain were particularly noticeable here yesterday, and last night. The situation was visible today, but the sky was murky.

The eruption of Mount Shishaldin, on Unimak Island, which was seen by passengers of the mail steamer Dora, when she passed there ten days ago, was spectacular. A great column of flame poured out of the top of the mountain, while ashes spread over the surrounding country. The district affected by the volcano is uninhabited.

RICHEST INDIAN WORTH THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND.

Grand Forks, N. D., June 11.—The greatest fortune ever accumulated by any Indian of the north western tribes probably is that left by the late Mrs. Alma C. Parkin, a direct descendant of Sitting Bull, famous chief of the Sioux. Mrs. Parkin, who died recently at Cannon Ball, N. D., left an estate valued at more than $300,000, and it is possible that the total value will be found to be $400,000. The estate is divided equally between a nephew and a niece of Mrs. Parkin.

Mrs. Parkin built up her estate by her own efforts. She had thousands of acres of farm lands, which she made valuable by the employment of modern farming methods. She used Indians as farm help and taught them how properly to cultivate the land.

IRONING WITH FEET.

A writer in The Wide World Magazine says that the most curious sight he saw at Cairo was men ironing clothes with their feet! The men were employed in the native tailoring establishments. Except for the long handle, the irons were shaped like the ordinary flat-iron, only larger. A solid block of wood rested on the top of the iron, and on this the men placed one foot, guiding the iron in the desired direction by means of the handle. For the sake of convenience, ironing-boards were raised only a few inches from the ground, and however strange the method may seem to us, the work was done very well and very expeditiously.

"Mary!" Father's voice rolled thunderously down the stairs, across the tessellated hall, and into the dim and silent drawing-room. "Yes, papa, dear," came the silvery reply. "Ask that young man if he can tell me the time." A moment of silence followed; then Mary spoke again: "He says it's ten minutes to eleven." "Then ask him if he doesn't think it's about bedtime." Again there was momentary silence, broken once more by Mary's dulcet tones: "He says, papa, that he rarely goes to bed before twelve, but it seems to him a matter of personal taste. And he says, pa, that, if he were in your place, he'd go to bed now if you feel tired."
