"My case was very serious and I was so sick that everybody expected my death any day. No suffering could ever be worse than what I had to endure.

I could feel at first the gravel passing through my bladder but now I am as strong as ever. I weigh about 20 lbs. more than when I started to take Gin Pills.

I beg you to publish my letter so that reople may know what Gin Pills had done for me. The first box relieved me a good deal, eight boxes were sufficient to cure me entirely, and bring me back to perfect health.

An Athens despatch to the Frank furter Zeitung says that the Gree Minister of State has informed that chiefs of the foreign legations that Greece, in order to maintain neutrality, has decided to disarm and imson in concentration camps all Serian troops who may retreat into Greek territory. Greece must prevent the war from spreading to her soil the Minister is quoted as declaring.

GREECE'S BLOCKADE.

PARIS, Nov. 21. An Athens correspondent of the Havas Agency in a despatch filed yesterday, confirms the report that the Entente Powers have declared a commercial blockade of Greece. An an-nouncement to this effect was made in the form of a note issued by the Brit-ish legation at Athens, and given out as follows: Because of the attitude taken by the Hellenic Government in regard to certain questions touching closely the security and liberty of action to which the Allies troops have a right under the conditions of their Allied Powers deemed it necessary to the effect of suspending economic and commercial facilities which Greece re-ceived from them heretofore. It is to constrain Greece to abandon her neutrality, to maintain which in their eves, is the best guarantee of her interests. The Allied Governments have been somewhat disturbed by certain llusions to eventual measures which, if taken by the Hellenic Government would appear to them to be contra dictory to the assurances they have received. Thursday, Nov. 18th was a red letter day in the history of the people of Caplin Cove, B.D.V., when the cornerstone of the new church was laid ac-cording to the ritual and ceremonies of the Methodist Church. An interest-ed congregation assembled in the school-room, and around the edific in course of construction during the ceremony. The service was conducted by the Pastor, Rev. C. R. Blount, who also laid the stone presented by James McIntyre, Esq., Standard Mar-ble Works, St. John's. A public tea followed at which the large crowd did justice to the good things provided by the ladies. A lecture on "Men and faces one has seen and met" was delivered by the Pastor which was high ly appreciated by the crowd which filled the hall. After the usual vote of thanks, the day closed with nett proceeds of $136.00. This small Methodist community is to be commend ed for their zeal and sacrifice in the erection of their new church.

BRITISH THEATRE.

With such a picture as is being at the British to-night the use is sure to attract large numbers. 'Called Back" is an adaptation from Hugh Conway's famous novel and is hown in four reels. All the actors the play have starred in other numers. The principal scenes are laid London, Venice and Petrograd, and ne vividness and density of a London g is clearly depicted. The scenes rom Venice will create much interest. while the newly christened city of Petrograd will be seen in an entirely fferent aspect. We have often heard "Wheels within Wheels," but come nd see this played to-night. Murdock McQuarrie fills the star part to per-"Fooling Father" is a comedy by the Joker Co., whose name ignifies their mission in life. In adlition to the above. #### REMARKABLE ACT AT ROSSLEY'S

There is a capital programme to night at Rossley's Theatre. Carroll and Ellor who are firm favorites, will seen in a very laughable sketch, titled "The Suicides Club." Some hing very funny and intended for laughing purposes only. Carroll in another distinct singing act again wearing some of his magnificent costumes. Don't miss this act. The new pictures are delightful, fact patrons declare they are the est yet. Mrs. Rossley is hard at work teaching her pantomime pupils and its safe to say "Beauty and the Beast" will be the best yet.
