will again, some day in the future, say to us, "Will ye not come back again?"—J.J. McMurdo's Store News.

SATURDAY, June 4.

The story of the Root Brothers, packy ere of Airline Honey reads like a rommance. And a carpenter and his brother have become the largest bee keepers in the world, with business in every state and province in North America. There is no doubt as to the quality of the Honey which is the finest in America, and has a quality of purity and delictousness which has seldom been equalled. If you have not yet tried this superior brand get a small crock for 35 cents and you will realize the truth of what we say. Large size for 60 cents. SATURDAY, June 4.

W.M.S. in Session

The afternoon service opened at 3 o'clock. Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. John Maddock, and Scripture lessons by Mrs. K. Barnes was followed by a most earnest, inspiring address on the great love of God to man, and prayer by Mrs. Parkins. We were then favored with a duet by Miss Gertrude Penney and Miss Jennile Guy, most beautifully rendered. Reports followed. The Literature department report was read by Mrs. Peters in the absence of the Secretary, Mrs. Currie. Report from the Strangers' department by Mrs. Joyce, and Christian Stewardship, by Mrs. Parkins. A rather unjusual break in the regular routine of branch work, was the uniting in the branch work, was the uniting in the bonds of holy matrimony by the Rev. A. V. Robb, of Mr. John Soper and

A. V. RODD, of Mr. John Soper and Miss Marion Kelloway. The Wedding March was played by Mrs. John Duff, The bride was honored by having her certificate signed by the Branch Pre-vice-President, Mrs. Lindsay, and the first-Vice-President, Mrs. Storey. She was also made a member of the Auxiliary. After this brief interval the branch resumed work, and was favored by a solo from Mrs. W. H. Butt, very sweetly rendered. Mrs. Snowden then led the consecration and memorial service. The names of those who during the year past, had entered into higher service, were read by Mrs. King, of Broad Cove. Mrs. Snowden's address was very effective, the personal touch, the every-day experiences, the need of putting first things first, were strongly emphasized and we trust will prove a benediction during the coming days. The Sacra-ment of the Lord's Supper was ad-ministered by Revs. A. V. Robb and C. R. Blount.

At 8 p.m., a choir recital was given by the "Carbonear Methodist Choir."

How much it was appreciated by the branch, how delighted everybody was, how long the memory of such beautiful music so perfectly rendered will remain with us, who can tell? At the close of the recital, Mrs. Bugden, on behalf of the courtesy committee, expressed our gratitude to the Reid Nfid. Co., for reduced rates; the kind friends of Carbonear for the very hearty welcome given them, and the Social Committee for the banquet served so daintily. The hostesses for the very kind entertainment given;

the young ladies who sang so beau-tifully during all the sessions; the sexton who was so kind and attentive and kept the church so comfertable; the Carbonear Methodist Choir for the splendid recital given; Rev. A. V. Robb for the many ways in which he helped to make the branch sessions a success; the press for so kindly printing our reports, and to all friends who in any way helped. A gift of gold was then presented by liss Wagg, as a token of appreciation

Miss wagg, as a token of appreciation of her many services, to which she very touchingly replied, saying this would be another link in the chain of love that binds us all together. District Organizers for the coming year-were elected as follows: Mrs. John Maddock, Carbonear; Mrs. (Rev.) Howse, Western District; Mrs. L. Osmond, Northern District; Mrs. K.

Barnes, St. John's.

A very short business session was;

words which we trust may never be.

to a close one of the most successful branch meetings ever held. We go to our different homes full of pleasant memories and hoping that Carbonear
