EIGHT MEN BLOWN UP.

Premature Explosion of a Big Blast of Rock Powder.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 10.—Eight men were blown to pieces and two others were injured by the premature explosion of a big blast of rock powder on the Pennsylvania Railroad, Improvements near New Cumberland, at 7.30 o'clock yesterday morning. All the victims were employees of H. S. Kerbaugh & Co., contractors.

The bodies of the men were terribly mangled and parades of flesh and bone were scattered a distance of 200 yards from the scene of the explosion. Not a trace of two colored men, who were killed, can be found, and it is supposed their bodies were blown into the river.

An autopsy was held yesterday. The jury charged a verdict of premature explosion from an unknown cause, and no blame attached to the contractors. The killed and injured were laborers, aside from James W. Warner, the dynamite boss, whose body was terribly mangled.

LORD ROBERTS' WARNING.

Army is Unfit to Uphold Britain as a First-Class Power—People Are, He Says, to Blame.

London, July 11.—Field Marshal Lord Roberts created a sensation in the House of Lords last evening when in a lengthy and well considered speech he deliberately expressed his opinion, for of Great Britain was inadequate, imperfectly trained and totally unfit to uphold Great Britain as a first-class power. Lord Roberts did not blame the Government, which, he said, was actuated by a national feeling, but he scathingly attacked the people of England, who, he said, showed no national feeling towards the military until danger arose.

The speech was delivered in connection with a motion introduced by the Earl of Wemyss and March (Conservative), traversing Premier Balfour's statement regarding the impossibility of the invasion of Great Britain, and urging the necessity of keeping up and pointing land forces to repel any possible invasion.

Prime Minister.

Lord Lansdowne, the Foreign Minister, declared Premier Balfour's statement that the Government had never made the least consideration of the possibility of an invasion of Great Britain, and that the Government had never made the least consideration of the possibility of an invasion of Great Britain, and that the Government had never made the least consideration of the possibility of an invasion of Great Britain.

Miss de Mulk—Mr. Foxey, am I younger than I look, or am I older?

Mr. Foxey—All I know about is that that nobody could possibly be half as young as you look.

Household Hint.

The Visitor—Your cook is perfection itself. How do you manage her? The Hostess—Easily. We learn what dishes she likes best herself and then we have those only.
