At every evening meeting there are converts professing to have entered the new life. There is no sensationalism apparent, but the severity of the test is more keenly felt at each service. The afternoon Bible readings are exceedingly helpful. Mr. Read is a deep student of the Word of God, and uses it with rare skill and power.

-The Young Ladies' Mission Circle of Queen's Avenue Methodist Church held a very pleasant social evening at their usual place of meeting on Tuesday, the occasion being to do honor to one of their members, Miss Jennie Ford, who is about to leave the city, and who some time ago offered herself to mission work, and who may in all probability go out to the foreign field.

In view of this the members took the opportunity of showing their high esteem and appreciation of Miss Ford by reading an address and presenting her with a purse on behalf of the circle, expressing the wish that in whatever she is engaged the noble work which she has chosen may be crowned with success.

At Pond Mills on Monday night, writes a correspondent, Mr. Shore, the Patron candidate, and Mr. A. F. Anderson addressed a meeting of the electors. Mr. Anderson said he did not have any speech to make, but he remarked that the straight Conservatives had put a man in the field against their candidate, and no doubt there would be another candidate yet. This sentiment brought forth a storm of applause from Liberal Patrons present. Mr. Shore said he was only a common farmer, but he thought he could represent the constituency in the Legislature. He was opposed to high schools, because of the high government grant given them; he was opposed to the Lieutenant-Governorship and also to the Ontario Agricultural College. When he came to deal with the Ontario timber limits, the debt of the Dominion Government and the dehorning commission, Mr. Shore got excited and mixed things pretty well up, and the audience laughed. He replied 'Oh, I wish T. O. Currie was here; he would explain all " Mr. Shore belongs to the well-known Conservative family of that name, which probably accounts for his asserting that Sir Oliver Mowat's Government should be defeated - a sentiment which was received with loud cries of "No. no." When Mr. Shore closed he was catechized by Messrs. Sumner, Hutcheson, Grieve, McDougal and Laidlaw, who represented the very strong section of the audience favorable to Patron principles generally, but opposed to any attempt to overthrow the Mowat Administration. Then someone in the audience threw a bombshell into the camp, for he asked Mr. Shore to then and there set at rest the question whether or not the candidate was a member of the P. P. A. organization. Mr. Shore hemmed and hawed, but declined to answer, and the audience ng an advertisement; style and emphasis reached the conclusion that he is allied with it. The meeting closed with cheers for the Queen and for Sir Oliver.

Mr. and Mrs. Chute, of Aylmer, desire that we should publish their testimonial and let other sufferers know what Williams' Royal Crown Remedy (Nature's Liquid) has done for Mr. Chute. He writes: "For ten years or more I have been a sufferer with dyspersia, and doctored with six of the most skilled doctors in this part of the country with but little relief and no benefit in return for the very large doctors' bills that I paid. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, but all to no purpose, until April, 1893, when I took to myself a wife, and it so happened that three years previous to our marriage she had been in poor health, and used part of a bottle of Royal Crown Remedy, and, knowing of its excellent qualities, she prevailed upon me to give it a trial. I purchased one bottle of the Remedy and Pills. and by the time I had them used my general health was much improved, and by the time I had taken three bottles I was restered to good health, and my neighbors say that I we looking better than I have done for years. I believe Royal Crown Remedy to be the best valuator the money on earth, and am thankfully youls.
