Ontario Cannot Afford to Dismiss Sir Oliver Mowat—Principal Grant.

Thoughtful citizens all over the Province are beginning to open their eyes to the business and moral dangers of the wicked character of the campaign for office-at-any-cost now being pursued by Mr. Meredith. These dangers, in the United States, have culminated in many places in severed business relations, in sundered neighborly attitudes, in bitterness, insecurity—in a word, in everything that is implied by the word "anarchy," apart from the bombs. It is not any mark of ability, but the opposite, that a politician is able to create irreligious bitterness in the name of the Author of the Golden Rule. The infamous work of kindling religious strife, says the Canada Presbyterian, is always easily done in a mixed community like that of Canada. If it be replied, "Oh! Mr. Meredith does not mean what he is saying on the platform; he is only trying once more, after long years of failure, to get into office on a new tack;"—such an apology only deepens the deep wickedness of his present course. It is one thing to-day, another thing to-morrow. Just now he shrilly appeals against one section of the population—his local and other organs being now filled every day with open or covert appeals to sectarian bigotry. Yet the Toronto Mail of December 8, 1886, reports Mr. Meredith as saying in his London speech: "An attempt is being made to make it appear that I am hostile to the separate schools. That is a cowardly attempt on the part of the Globe, in the face of my address, in which I said I am in favor of maintaining the separate schools and increasing their efficiency. The Globe has not the manliness to publish those remarks, but distorts what I have said in order to prejudice those who may not have access to any other means of information than its columns. Who secured the passage of the separate school law? IT WAS THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY OF CANADA."

To-day, either openly or covertly, according to the constituency, or the ward, or the concession, Mr. Meredith is seeking the poor success of office-at-any-price by endeavoring to arouse the basest, the most dangerous passions of mankind. What wonder that the Canada Presbyterian says, "Beware of those who try to kindle strife among neighbors." What wonder Rev. Dr. Dewar, editor of the Methodist Christian Guardian, says of Hon. Geo. W. Ross, who is especially singled out for attack, that "the persistent assaults on his administration have been so triumphantly met and repelled that they are now cast aside—like bullets that have been flattened against a granite wall—and are of no farther use to their authors?" What wonder that Principal Austin, of St. Thomas, should declare he feels bound, as an honest man, to support Sir Oliver Mowat? What wonder that Principal Grant, a Conservative, should declare, Ontario cannot afford to dismiss Sir Oliver Mowat? The honest, quiet citizen has an imperative call to rally to the support of Sir Oliver Mowat by supporting those candidates who are pledged to support him. Sir Oliver Mowat has preserved the business credit of this Province, while other countries have shaken to the center. Sir Oliver Mowat has fought and won for Ontario 100,000 square miles of valuable territory of which her opponents sought to deprive her. Sir Oliver has kept Ontario out of debt—the only Province of which that can be said. Is it of no moral consequence that our young men should have had before them for all these years the example of a pure-minded, God-fearing, upright statesman at the head of Provincial affairs? Much can be done by the quiet elector, through quiet, uncontroversial and persuasive talk, to discourage all attempts to bedevil the community by the raising of false issues—that community in which all of us, whether Conservatives or Liberals, Jews or Gentiles, have to mingle in friendly business and general intercourse after the 26th of June. As Principal Grant puts it, "Ontario cannot afford to dismiss Sir Oliver Mowat."

Anarchist Tactics.

ROME, June 15.—During the trial of Signor Tanlongo to-day a letter signed by Anarchists was circulated in the court room threatening the jurors with death if they acquit Tanlongo. The letter says since Deputy De Felice and other children of the people have been condemned guilty capitalists must not be treated with leniency. The concluding sentence of the letter says: "We know your addresses."

Easily Answered.

LONDON, June 15.—In the House of Commons to-day Sir Hugh J. Kay-Shuttleworth, Secretary to the Admiralty, stated in reply to a question by Mr. Charles E. H. Vincent that it was true that the British Admiralty had purchased pork, oils and other naval supplies in foreign countries. The reason for this, he said, was because these supplies could be bought cheaper abroad than at home.

The Pope Was Near Death.

ROME, June 15.—The representative of the United Press is informed by the Pope's physician that his Holiness' recent attack of weakness brought him near death. His Holiness has fully recovered his strength and is now in excellent health.

A committee of the College of Cardinals has approved of the Pope's encyclical letter, stamping it as his political testament. The encyclical will shortly be promulgated.

To Finish the Manchester Canal.

MANCHESTER, June 15.—At the meeting of the directors of the Manchester Ship Canal to-day it was resolved to make application to the council of the city of Manchester on June 30 for the issue of a 3 per cent loan of £500,000 to assist in the completion of the final work on the canal. The authorization of this sum will exhaust the statutory powers of the city of Manchester to vote money to the canal.

A Horrible Suspicion.

MELBOURNE, June 15.—Mrs. Martha Needle, a widow, keeper of a lodging house, has been arrested on the charge of attempting to kill one of her lodgers, a man named Juncken, by giving him arsenic. From discoveries made the authorities believe the woman's husband and three children and Juncken's brother, all of whom died recently, were poisoned by her.

Anniversary of Emperor Frederick's Death.

BERLIN, June 15.—The Emperor and Empress observed the anniversary of Emperor Frederick's death by going to the Potsdam mausoleum this morning, and offering silent prayer at the tomb and laying wreaths at the head and foot. Hundreds of other persons were at the tomb this afternoon. Many of them left wreaths and great bunches of flowers.

Two Thousand Coffins Given Away.

The Canton correspondent of a Hong-Kong newspaper, under date of May 8, says: "Hardly a house but has someone dead. The plague began in the Mohammedan quarter, and 100 cases are reported daily. It is impossible to ascertain the number of deaths. Officials try to suppress the facts. At the largest charitable dispensary a notice on the door says that up to date 2,000 coffins have been given away. This is far below the actual number used."

French and Belgians on Bad Terms.

BRUSSELS, June 15.—The Government has received news from the African district of Oubanghi, bordering on the Congo State, that the French and Belgians there are on bad terms. The hostile feeling grows out of disputes in regard to the occupation of that territory. As was announced in the French Chamber of Deputies by M. Hanotaux, French troops are en route to the Oubanghi country, but the Belgians there greatly outnumber the French, and in these circumstances a conflict would result very seriously to the latter. It is hoped that an armed collision may be averted by negotiations between the Governments of Brussels and Paris.

Lost by Nine Votes.

LONDON, June 15.—The Earl of Dunraven moved in the House of Lords to-day the second reading of the Deceased Wife's Sister Bill. He said that the experience of the United States and Canada, which did not forbid a man marrying his deceased wife's sister, was a sufficient refutation of the objections of the bishops. It was a hardship and a cause of expense that a man to marry his deceased wife's sister and legitimize his children by her must go abroad to have the ceremony performed. Lord Herschell, the Lord Chancellor, spoke in favor of the bill. The Archbishop of Canterbury and Lord Selborne and Dudley spoke against it. The bill was lost by 129 to 120.

The Prince of Wales, Lord Rosebery and most of the Liberals supported the bill. Lord Salisbury, the Duke of Norfolk, and many other Tories and some twenty bishops opposed it.

In Re Morocco.

LONDON, June 16.—Sir Edward Gray, Parliamentary Secretary to the Foreign Office, stated in the House of Commons this afternoon that the powers had decided upon concerted action to maintain the statu quo in Morocco, but had not yet decided to formally recognize Abdul Aziz as Sultan of Morocco.

TANGIER, June 15.—Abdul Aziz has been proclaimed Sultan in Fez. No militant opposition to his succession was manifested there, despite the previous apprehensions of trouble. His uncle, Muley Ishmail, has been appointed Khalif of Fez. A large force of French and Algerian troops has been ordered to the Algerian border to watch the course of events in Morocco.

Many Miners Killed.

VIENNA, June 15.—Five distinct explosions of fire-damp occurred in the coal mines of Count Larisch, at Karwin, Austrian-Silesia, last night.

The first explosion occurred in one of the pits of the Franziska mines at 10 o'clock last night. Of the large number of miners at work there twelve were killed. Almost immediately there was another explosion in an adjoining pit, followed by several other explosions, the most serious being in Johann mine, in which a large number of men were working, and of whom 80 were killed.

At 5 o'clock this morning a rescue party went down into one of the pits. The fire was spreading in all of them, destroying the ventilator shafts.

The rescue party were caught by the flames and perished.

Large crowds of people, many of them the wives, children and other relatives of the dead miners, are congregated about the entrances to the shafts giving vent to their grief in loud lamentations.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the fire in the Karwin mines had not abated, and men were set to closing the pit with brickwork. It was then thought that all the bodies in the mine had been burned.

A dispatch from Karwin says that only twenty of the men injured by the explosion were taken out of the mines. Several of them were dying when brought to the surface. The rescue party which was lost consisted of ten men. In 1885 there was a fire in the same mines. It lasted eight days, and mining experts say that this time it will continue to burn for at least a week.

IN LABOR'S FIELD.

The Anti-Canadian Crusade in Buffalo.

Many Miners in Pennsylvania and Elsewhere Will Resume Work on Monday.

BUFFALO, June 15.—The anti-Canadian crusade has gained an important point. Heretofore the street railway company has employed a very large number of Canadians annually. Select Councilman Byrne recently opposed a grant of right of way to the company because of this fact, and had the grant tabled. President Watson, of the street railway company, now announces that hereafter only citizens will be employed by the company.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 15.—At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon the miners' district convention voted unanimously in favor of resuming work on June 18, and with the same vote ratified the action of the Columbus convention and endorsed the action of the national officials.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Bradstreet's says: Present prospects point to the practical failure of the bituminous coal strike and the outlook is for a practical return of the miners to work in a sufficient number of districts to end the strike by the middle of next week. Should western manufacturers of iron and steel refuse to sign the wage scale of the Amalgamated Association higher prices for various forms of these metals will result.

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, June 15.—A trestle was burned this afternoon near Granger's Station, on the Brush Creek branch of the Columbus, Shawnee and Hocking Railroad. Striking miners are suspected of firing the trestle.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 15.—A riot occurred on the south branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad early this morning at Strickler's mines, in which 800 miners engaged. A coal train was stopped at Shop station and the engineer compelled to reverse his engine and take the train back to the sidetrack.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 11.—Advices from Mount Oliver state that the miners there have again broken out and are stopping all trains on the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis Railroad, and the United States deputy marshals there are powerless.

PITTSBURGH, June 15.—The convention of coal miners of the Pittsburgh district accepted the 63-cent rate and will resume work Monday. The vote was 89 to 31, but it was not unanimous immediately after the announcement. When explanations were given the opposition to the officials growing out of misunderstanding gradually melted away. There are nearly 20,000 miners in the Pittsburgh district, and as a majority of the operators are satisfied with the new schedule, a large number of miners will return to work Monday. Where operators will not pay the scale the miners will remain on strike.

CONCISE CULLINGS.

The Richmond and Danville Railway at Richmond, Va., property as a whole was sold on Friday to Drexel, Morgan & Co., N. Y., for $2,000,000.

The Countess of Aberdeen is making a tour of the Province of Ulster, Ireland, in behalf of Irish home industries.

A City of Mexico telegram states that the Secretary of the Treasury has charged 56 of the principal officials of his department with wilfully destroying documents to conceal a serious offense not specified.

At Marquette, Mich., Capt. Smith Moore stepped off the steamer Chisholm Friday morning, just returning home from Cleveland, greeted his friends and got on a street car on the way to his residence. Shortly after he had a stroke of apoplexy, and before a physician could be reached he was dead. Capt. Moore was one of the best-known vessel men on the lakes. He was 65 years old.

Lambton Liberals Hold a Good Meeting in Petrolia.

Mr. Jackson and His Friends Doing Well in East Middlesex.

SPLENDID LIBERAL MEETING AT ST. IVES. At a splendid meeting was held on Wednesday at St. Ives in the interest of Mr. R. W. Jackson, the Reform candidate. The chair was taken by Mr. Robert Patterson.

The meeting was opened by a rousing speech from Mr. Woods, one of the first Patrons in the Province of Ontario. He pointed out clearly the position of the Patronage and that of the P. P. A. as inconsistent, as a man could not properly belong to both institutions. He was frequently applauded.

Mr. R. W. Jackson addressed his remarks principally to farmers, and urged upon them the fact that if the farmers could not get justice in the present House, where more than one-third of them were farmers, it would be impossible to organize a Legislature in which they could get justice.

Mr. Archie Black followed, entering minutely into several of the issues, and in his clear, pointed style, and with the ritual of the P. P. A. Order in his hand, denounced the order.

Mr. T. H. Hardman delivered the last speech of the evening, taking up the various issues which had not been taken up by the previous speakers.

It is apparent in the riding that there is much dissatisfaction with the fact that Mr. Shore advertises his meetings for Patrons of Industry and those who appear on the platform for him to deliver P. P. A. speeches, and the feeling is strong that there is an attempt being made to hoodwink the Patrons of Industry and make tools of them in the interest of the P. P. A. The meeting broke up with three cheers for the Queen, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Jackson and the chairman.

A good meeting in Mr. Jackson's interest was also held in Newcastle on Thursday night, and another at Hyde Park. If the friends of Mr. Jackson get out their vote, they will win by a great majority.

THE TIGER AND THE BOY.

At a meeting in West Toronto on Thursday night, in answer to an interrupter, Mr. Lindsey, the Liberal candidate, made an excellent point when he told how the separate schools tiger of the News cartoon represented but 7 per cent of the scholars of Ontario, and the prostrate little public school boy 93 per cent. If that were a true picture of Protestantism, if 93 per cent were trampled upon by 7 per cent, then he blushed for Protestantism. (Cheers.)

A PEANUT POLITICIAN.

The latest charge against the Mowat Government is that brought by Mr. Marter. He has discovered that the London Asylum bill for laundry work includes the washing of Dr. Buckle's shirts. Having in view, probably, the success with which the "bloody shirt" has been used in United States political struggles, Mr. Marter, Mr. Meredith's large hearted and generous lieutenant, seized upon it as one of the great issues of the campaign and after dwelling on the subject sometime has magnified it to a $400 robbery. It turns out, however, that the total of the bill for washing in the superintendent's department was $65. Mr. Marter seems to be like Dr. Ryerson, very much of a peanut politician. —[Hamilton Times.]

LAMBTON LIBERALS.

PETROLIA, June 15.—Mr. C. Mackenzie, the candidate of the Reform party for this county, opened the ball here this evening in Victoria Hall, Mr. John Fraser, acting as chairman. The hall was filled. Mr. Mackenzie spoke for about one hour and a half, touching on all the important points in connection with the Mowat Government. He was frequently applauded and received a good hearing.

A PATRON CHANGE.

WELLESLEY, June 15.—At a convention of Patrons of Industry held here Mr. Val Otterbein, of Wellesley township, was chosen in place of Mr. D. M. Shoemaker to contest the north riding in the approaching elections. There are now in the field Mr. Robertson, Reform; Val Otterbein, Patron, and T. G. Gardiner, Independent.

MR. ROSS AT NORWOOD.

NORWOOD, Ont., June 16.—Hon. G. W. Ross and Thos. Blezard, M.P.E., addressed a largely attended meeting at Norwood last night in the drill shed. Mr. Ross, accompanied by his wife, was the guest of John Davidson, head master of the high school, and during the afternoon visited the high and public schools, and witnessed a football match between the town and school boys. At the evening meeting Thos. Blezard, the Liberal candidate, spoke for an hour with good effect. Hon. Mr. Ross, who was in good form, spoke for two hours upon the policy of the Mowat Government. He defended his position as Minister of Education and the general policy of the Government.

A London Lady Honored.

Miss Lizzie R. Laird, youngest daughter of Rev. J. G. Laird, of this city, at the late examinations of the Toronto University, won the William Mulock scholarship in mathematics. When the college authorities ascertained from the examiners who had won scholarships, one of the professors last Wednesday telegraphed Mr. Grey, mathematical master in the Collegiate Institute here, requesting him to ask Miss Laird to go to the convocation the following day, so that she might receive public recognition for having taken this scholarship. At the public reception given by the Governor-General to the university students after the convocation, when Miss Laird was introduced, his Excellency congratulated her on her proficiency and on her success in winning such an important scholarship. She also took first-class honors in English, German and French, and second-class honors in Italian.
