BASEBALL.

Lost to Chatham.

London's easy win from Chatham on Monday gave them an overdose of confidence, and yesterday they were turned down in good style by the visions. Chatham's star twirler, Andy LOST TO CHATHAM. Monday gave them an overdose of confidence, and yesterday they were turned down in good style by the visiturned down in good style by the visitors. Chatham's star twirler, Andy Thompson, who hails from Woodstock, Was in the box for the outsiders, and Was one too many for the local batswas one too many for the local bats-men. He pitched a great brand of ball, and was especially effective at critical points of the game. Wiggs, who did the slab work for the home team, was in good form, and only allowed the visitors seven hits, three of them made by Grimshaw, formerly with London. Errors were responsible for four of the Chatham's six runs, and Grimshaw's homer another. The sixth was given to them by Wiggs, who issued a pass, made a wild pitch, and the next man up singled. The visitors scored in the second inning on a wild throw of Radcliffe's and Lohman let a ball go though him a little later, costing another tally. Pete repeated the same other tally. Pete repeated the same performance in the seventh, and the cost was the same, another run. Wiggs steadied right down, and kept the visitors guessing. In the third innings, with three men on bases, he struck out the last man, and in the seventh, with the bases all filled, he struck out the last two men. Neal, who covers the left pasture for the Chathams, is one of the best fielders in the league. He had six difficult chances, without an error, covering all kinds of ground.

FLYS.

Looking over a rule book back in '82, a fan came upon one or two rules that would make good in any more modern book years to come. One was giving the umpire a right to call it a balk when the pitcher held the ball too long and delayed the game. Another imposed a fine on the player not coming to bat promptly at the umpire's call. A third amusing rule, which will be remembered, said that in case the ball was lost for any cause, at the expiration of five minutes the umpire should replace it with a new ball and allow the game to go on.

A friendly game of ball was played McLean's and Taylor's. It resulted in fachs are out of gear; favor of the latter 16 to 1. Batteries—faded out women owe Reid's and Westman's, Northy and to imperfect digestion. Brown; McLean's and Taylor's, Johnson and Taylor.

RUHLIN PUT SHARKEY TO SLEEP Seaside A. C., Coney Island, New York, June 26 .- For the first time in his pugilistic career Tom Sharkey went down to decisive defeat tonight in the historic arena of the Seaside A C., and big Gus. Ruhlin, the Ohio pugilist, was his conqueror. It was a clean knockout that came after fifteen rounds of fight that made a memorable ring battle. Save in the matter of aggressiveness, Ruhlin led from the start off in every feature of the game, and at all times had the fight well in hand. Sharkey did not give up his place in the line of the first-class heavy-weights without a desperate struggle. In the fifteenth round Tom was first up. He closed, but Gus sent him away with short left and right jolts on the head. Tom looked tired, and Gus followed him and jabbed his head back and crossed his right to the jaw. Tom staggered, and Ruhlin stepped in and banged him with both hands, until the sailor staggered to the floor. He was up at the count, but unable to make a defense, and again he went to the carpet from Ruhlin's blows. With bulldog gameness he struggled again to his feet. Gus by this time was hardly able to use his hands, but when Tom again regained his feet he staggered to the game sailor and sent short lefts and rights to the head, that looked as if they would not hurt a child. But Tom was so badly done for that he again went down under them. Again Tom rose blindly to his feet, and Gus walked to him. Tom tried to clinch, but Gus stepped back, and with a straight left to the face, and right uppercut to the jaw Tom toppled forward, all out, and Referee Johnny White waved Ruhlin to his corner, while the sailor pugilist's seconds carried him to his corner, where he gradu-

Astounded the Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville. S. C., was once immensely surprised. Through long suffering from Dyspepsia." he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, and can eat anything. Regarding Remedies for Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

The national disease of Americans is indigestion, or in its chronic form, dyspepsia, and for the very reason that it is so common many people neglect taking proper treatment for what they consider trifling stomach trouble, when as a matter of fact indigestion lays the foundation for many incurable diseases. No person with a vigorous, healthy stomach will fall a victim to consumption. Many kidney diseases and heart troubles date their beginning at Springbank last night between the from poor digestion; thin, nervous peoclerks of Reid's and Westman's vs. ple are really so because their stomachs are out of gear; weary, languid, faded out women owe their condition
