Universally Acknowledged

NATURAL GREEN Tea from Ceylon. It has deliciousness in the cup quite foreign to all others, and will captivate your taste. Sealed lead packets only, same as "SALADA" Black Tea.

turns her blue eyes with defiant mock- memory of the great joy is the harder ery on Paula's apprehensive face.

blithesome and flashing, to dispel sen- pale and wan. That some sort of strugtiment, something like this?" wild Baechanalian dance resounds through the room, to which the rip- | A slight sigh broke from Flossie's lips narmonious accompaniment. Paula stands bewitched, her dark eyes fixed upon the elfish face, crowned by its short curls. But the music ceases

That will not do; you do not care for it, and I want to please you. This, And the thin fingers touch the keys softly, and the musical voice sings a soft, flowing melody. unnatural in it. She cannot but reing 'twixt life and death. Who is she- you understand?" what is she, that she can sing like this -change from one mood to another at

"Is that too mournful?" asks Flossie, with a mocking smile. "Listen!" and lovely face so calm and serene in its with an upward movement of the suppurity and nobleness, gazing up at it ple wrist she strikes the opening chords of her song in "Old King Cole," and Paula stands amazed and astounded.

stand. I will sing no more. Are you fond of dance music?"

there floats through the room that waltz which she and Sir Herrick danced to on the gravel path outside the Court

Wrought to an unusual pitch of ex who is dead to her, him who has left

With flushed cheeks and sparkling eyes companion's head has dropped lower, and that bitter, scalding tears are welling in the dark eyes.

At last Paula can bear it no longer. She lays a faltering hand upon Flossie's shoulder-half in command, half in entreaty-and the waltz comes sud- speak of it?" denly to an end.

"No more?" says Flossie, laughing. pleads Flos
"Are you tired? That was my favorite I suppose? waltz! Ah, you are crying!" she says, beneath her breath. 'No, no," says Paula, trying to smile at once, when we parted." through her tears.

'But you were! Why? Tell me?" eagrly.

I—I should have hated him. No, even if Paula hesitates a moment, then she I had loved him, I could not have for "dangerous to batting, he shoot," the shoot, the shoot, the shoot, the shoot, the shoot, the shoot, the shoot had been as were the "curve," the "shoot," the shoot, the shoot had been as were the "curve," the shoot, the shoot had been as were the "curve," the shoot, the shoot had been as were the "curve," the shoot, the shoot had been as were the "curve," the shoot, the shoot had been as were the "curve," the shoot, the shoot had been as were the "curve," the shoot had been as were the shoot had been as well as were the shoot had been as well as wel

Yes, I was crying. It was foolish; I was-ah, so happy-and nowher, her own face pale and strained. Paula gazes down at her as if she did a girl, scarcely knowing what love supposing she came and went on her meant. Now I know! It touched me to knees to you, and asked you to forgive 'No," says Flossie, with a strange

"I am not used to seeing people cry when I play or sing. And this waltz reminded you-Paula forces a laugh.

Of the time when I was very young and very foolish, and believed that happiness was possible in this world! must have been very young and foolish. you see!"
"And he?" says Flossie, with a long-drawn breath. 'He!" says Paula, smiling through Flossie looks up at the lovely face, so full of purity and dignity, so full of patience and long-suffering, and she rises slowly, painfully. "Will you give me your arm to the sofa?" she says. "I have sung my last ng, played my last waltz . I-I who used to make them laugh, have made you cry. Help me to the sofa!" almost carries the slight, frail form to the couch, and Flossie leans back for a moment in silence; then she raises herself and looks at Paula. "You must have suffered much," she says in a strange voice. Paula smiles. Suffered!" she says lightly. "Everybody suffers, sooner or later."

"And suffer!" says Flossie, with a wise shake of the head. "You are not of the kind who forget."

Paula smiles. 'Does anyone ever really forget?" she says, absently turning over

Woman's Greatest Enemy

Constipation the Cause of Most Women's Trouble - An Easy Way to with a strange smile. Condition.

. Nearly all are slaves to some kind her off. of medicine to correct this trouble, and have to be repeated. It is Dr. Leon- tell you, but not yet-not yet." the author of this prescription. He forced laugh, that rings sad and thin, used it for years with wonderful suc- "Haven't you heard about the supersti-

Many ladies who have suffered for jure."

sometimes flatter ourselves that we do, but, sometimes, when we are least expecting it, the great sorrow, or, per haps, the great joy, comes back to us; and of the two"—with a reflective light in her deep eyes, and a pensive smile "of the two, I think the to bear." "It is the one thing I can do," she her, a look of intense, strained attensays. "What will you have-something tion in her eyes, her pretty Grecian face gle was going on within her bosom And her fingers fly over the keys, and anyone might have seen, but Paula was lost in the past and blind.

pling laughter of the player keeps an and she put her jeweled fingers to her lips with a gesture of hesitation and wistful weakness. "Perhaps you will say, too, that it is murs in so low a voice that it scarcely breaks the sillness of the room.

Paula sighs and shakes her head. "Oh, no. I think it is easy to forgive." "Easy?" and the blue eyes open wide. Paula laughs softly. Yes, easy. What does it matter, once the wrong is done? If you canont repair uneasy. There is something weird and it, and cannot forget it, at least you can forgive. Besides, one cannot hate member that the performer is hover- what one scorns, or what one loves. Do Flossie's face grows paler. "I-I think I understand," she says and her fingers close on to the palms of her hands. "Yes"-gazing at the slippery. with a childish kind of wonder as if it were the face of a superior being—

"you, you are noble while I—I forgive!"
And the red lips open and show a line of white ivory. "If I hate, I hate to the death! While you"—she stops—although it seemed very popular with though very few thought that the Lord of the game, except in the old-don, and a first-class team would undoubtedly be liberally patronized. The attendance on Saturday conclusively proved that, for although the weather was anything but favorable, and although it seemed very popular with though very few thought that the Lord. purity and nobleness, gazing up at it Suddenly, in the midst of it, Flossie of white ivory. "If I hate, I hate t stops, and looks at the lovely face bent the death! While you"—she stopsyou a question?" falteringly. "Ask me twenty," says Paula, and line was strong and pretty fast. With ple paid 25 cents to get into the she moves and leans against the couch the notable exception of Field, they grounds and 15 cents in addition for Her fingers, straying over the keys and looks dreamily down at Flossie's checked their men pretty well. as she speaks, strike them now, and- multitudinous trinkets and rings, which quarter passed well, and their halves stand. More than two hundred of the a marble statue Flossie's heart beats fast. "You say that you can forgive those class. Peel is their best half, and and returned shortly after midnight. who have wronged you if you love Cry of the Baseball World because of your love, and forcitement already, this is the climax for give those whom you scorn because of Every note of the familiar your scorn? Have I got it right?"

"How serious you are." she says. And her hand strays to the short curls. The tone of her voice, the ca-Flossie plays on, unconscious that her ressing gesture, were just such as she "Then you have forgiven him?-you are not angry For she feels Paula's hand suddenly clasp still and motionless. "No," says Paula. "But why do you "You said you would answer pleads Flossie. "You have forgiven him,

"Yes, oh, yes," says Paula, as calmly as she can. "He knows-he knew that Flossie's breath comes fast. You forgive him! It is wonderful!

ooks down at her through unshed given him. But she-she who came beween you-you could not forgive her? Suppose, for instance-it's absurd, of -she raises herself on her eldon. The last time I heard that waltz bow, and gives a faint, flickering laugh, while her eyes fix themselves "Go on!" says Flossie, looking up at on Paula's dreamy ones-"suppose she came to you and-and told you that she was sorry-of course, she would not! It's absurd; no woman ever did When I heard that waltz last I was or would. But just for argument's sake, > her, what would you say? Paula's face is quite pale and she stands silent for a moment. "I hope she would not," she says very "I do not think she wouldthe happy so seldom need forgiveness. is happy with him-Flossie starts, and raises her hand to and shoots that twirlers have now, and change to the old "gigantic" condi-her lips just in time to stop the exclamation that nearly sprang from men of his height, who appeared to be selves without any radical change in went from you to her, of course-I suppose he must have done—and they were and laced the ball out, too, in a way could slug, and it holds today, "spit happy, while you"-she stops. She is that would drive some of the batters ball" or no. "Oh, it is the same old trembling visibly, and the two spots story; he loved someone else better glow like red camelias on her pale cheeks. "I thought you would break cheeks. "I thought you would break down," she says with a laugh.

> couldn't forgive her." Paula is silent for a moment, the she says: "I am not the least bit of a saint, bu could forgive her.' Flossie utters no word of comment either of unbelief or surprise; but her saint-and you are nearly one, I think-eyes close and her hands clasp each other very tightly. Paula looks down at her with tender

"I think I must go now," she says. I have tired you again." tears fall from under her closed lids, "But, yes," says Paula, "You are far too weak to bear even the mild ex-

"Weak! Yes, I am weak!" murmurs Flossie with bitter self-scorn. "But, The sport at the Queen's Park mati-perhaps," wistfully, "I shall be strong nees during the summer months was all come and see me again? It is very slow "I will come," says Paula, "and very often if you will let me. "Yes, I will 'let' you," says Flossie, "Don't trouble to ring." says Paula. Permanently Cure This Painful "I can find my hat and jacket, Goodbye," and moved to infinite pity for pale, beautiful face, she stoops to ciation.

"No," she pants. "Not-not yet!" they get nothing but temporary Then seeing Paula's face crimson with One period of constipation is surprise, she catches her hand, and followed by another, and it's physic, holding it tightly, "You — you don't physic, physic, year in and year out, think it is because I do not like you till life becomes a burden. There is now a sure cure for this think that. You will know some day and a cure that does not why-why I will not. Some day I shall Dr. Leonhardt, of Lincoln, Neb., is seeing Paula's face still perplexed and troubled, she adds, with a nervous, cess in his own large practice as a tion about kissing? You have not? I remedy for dyspepsia, biliousness and am very superstitious. So much so as constipation.

BLAZE OF BARGAINS

That Is Lighting Up the Country for Miles Around!

Drygoods, Millinery, Furnishing Goods, Ribbons, Laces, Etc. At Less Money Than Possible.

earnings on each and every purchase while this sale lasts.

But seeing is believing. Don't spend a dollar until you come and look through our store. Our idea is to save you part of your

So come this week and reap Greater New York Salvage Co.'s Big Sale of the T. G. Whiskard Stock some of these bargains at the Greater New York Salvage Co.'s Big Sale of the T. G. Whiskard Stock Sale Will Close in Fifteen Days. 134 DUNDAS STREET. Look for Big Blue Front.

SATURDAY'S GAME WAS HARDEST THE TIGERS PLAYED THIS SEASON

district series on Saturday at London, easy enough, and for the first time than 18 to 12. the yellow and black scored a shut-out. The Spec: T people were in the grand stand when game, for while the Londons were shut they (the Hamilton contingent) arrived, out, they played a strong, aggressive and the London and Petrolea juniors game throughout, and gave the Tigers were just finishing their game. The the hardest fight they have had this Tigers went on the field for a short season. Individually, they player good practice in a heavy shower of rain, football, but they apparently knew which was still falling when the teams nothing about combination play and lined up. However, the skies soon were, as a consequence, outclassed. cleared, and both weather and grounds However, with a little coaching on the were pretty fair, enough for good foot- fine points of the game and on team branch of the game, except in the old- ship. Football is on the boom in Lonpreciable extent?

legislation to gain his object.

the Times and Spectator, respectively, not try to play dirty. Most of the Lon-accompanied the Hamilton Tigers to doners tried to rough it. They laid for this city on Saturday, and in their re- Simpson in particular, and he took all ports of the game they say:

that was offered without saying a
The Times: Hamilton Senior Tigers word, and played the best game he has played the last game in the western ever put up. Referee Woodsworth's opinion of London is that with George and wound up with an unbroken rec- Ballard as captain and one week to ord of victories. The last was the drill them they would be so good that impossible for us to forgive?" she mur- hardest game, but, even at that, was Hamilton could not beat them worse > ball, although the ball was heavy and work the Londoners should next year Hamilton proved superior at every Tigers a hard fight for the champion-the death! While you"—she stops— although it seemed very popular with though very few thought that the Lon-"would you be very angry if I asked the London crowd. The Londoners did dons had a ghost of a chance against not make many mistakes, either. Their the champions, nearly a thousand peo-Their the privilege of getting into the grandoh! strange and wonderful coincidence glitter in the sunlight like raindrops on were fast and sure, while McLennan at crowd were from Hamilton, they havback played a brilliant game, But, as ing accompanied the Tigers on their a whole, they were not in the Tigers' special train, which left here at noon awaited the coming champion. When on the return march the cham- Louisiana trotters, 2:12 class. on the success of the horse. Smathers made a brief acknowledgin applause. The famous horse then very fast. Moreover, it has been dewas driven by his owner several fast driving the runner as a companion. NEVER EQUALED

Than Any Other Ball Player Ever on the Diamond.

Kelly." Great base runners, great has sent out the following letter: Today Is for More Batting Kelly." Great base runners, great has sent out the following letter:

"Might I, as a friend of hockey, writing, I believe, in the best interests of when seen vesterday had no approuncelayers, great coaches have come, but no one man has there been combined the qualities of greatness on the ball field that belonged to the king pin of canvassing for votes, more particu-More batting is now the cry in the lof the present day to the permanent baseball world throughout the length bench or the tall timber. Look at the of the diamond—the incomparable Mike and breadth of the land, writes Sam pitching Jim O'Rourke, Roger Connor, Kelly. No man has earned the great "Cap" Anson, John Ward, Ed. Wil-Crane in the New York American. But liams, Mike Kelly, Pete Gillespie and national popularity among sport lovers that Kelly attained. There are several do these calamity howlers, who see in other famous sluggers were obliged to the continuance of the "spit ball" a face. And perhaps they couldn't hit the bugaboo to batting that is simply riball. Why, those hitters, and they were times as many baseball enthusiasts today as there were in Kelly's time, and baseball idols exist in many cities. diculous, realize that very few if any hitters, made themselves famous and Boston has Collins and Cy Young, New natural batters fell off to any ap- goined their popularity simply by their York has Mathewson, McGinnity, and Chesbro; Chicago has Jones and Kling; Cleveland has the greatest of present players in mere playing ability, Lajoie, none of these players approaches

The "expectoration ball" is no more Men like Dan Brouthers, Anson, Condangerous to batting, nor so much so, nors and others were hired simply for Kelly in the degree of popularity atand many other famous deliveries that of imagination. They would have tained on ball fields outside of his own were expected to revolutionize the game laughed at the "spit ball," as they did when they first were sprung on the at the "curve," the "drop" and other city. Kelly was everywhere a drawing card, a "mark" for the fans. The seridazed batter. But did the batter throw balls. They gave the pitchers credit for ous devotees of the game cheered him. up his hands and cry quits? No, he having them and then laid themselves simply studied up plans and schemes out to pummel those particular puzthe sarcastic brigades in the bleachers joshed him, merely to hear his witty replies, and everybody liked to see him gained by the pitcher, by the use of the Those batters of today who are makplay ball. Collins, Young, Jones and new and unexpected ball, and the bat- ing a "squeal" over the "spit ball' others have made warm friends, who ter invariably gained his point in the while the pitcher is obliged to face the end, and as a general thing without plate and throw the ball where you can see it from start to finish and 35 feet running jump at the batter with his The way to improve batting is to get by "Kel." They have no witty sallies aged in a spirit of fidelity to this sound back to the plate when he started the the batters. In those good old days of in stock with which to reply to the principle. delivery, and could take as many steps good old hitters, there were beef and bleacherites, Jones and Chesbro and only 45 feet away from the plate. The It is a question whether the baseball pitchers, too, had all the speed, curves public of today would not welcome a has turned the tide of victory, but do no harm." none of them is more so than was to face the lengthy Jim Whitney or tions. But things will equalize them-Kelly, who originated many of the fine points in the professional game that "KID FARMER" GOES are now a part of the regular play.

Once a batter, always a batter. That Kelly, too, was a good fellow off th diamond, and popular with the players managers and magnates. He was generous and a spendthrift. He had a respect he served baseball a good turn, ried unconscious to his cell. for his example in this particular beplayers, and drinking among professionals of the diamond has declined to prise to many who have seen his many and Messrs. Harcourt and Dryden with plucky ring battles. back five feet and it was then the bating to the season of the Amateur Road Robinson. In a neat speech the prize ting averages took a great leap. This Drivers' Association could not have was presented and accepted. Mr. Nor- was the year in which the National been desired than the event in the offered by Dr. Tennent, V. S., for the Association made an equally remarkman McLeod was presented with a cup had 68 men batting .300. The American able showing. They also had 68 men exceeding 300 and 11 over 400. O'Neil led with the enormous average of .492, which made a safe hit every other time he faced the pitcher. In the two leagues the total of .300 hitters was 136, against 12 in 1904—a bit of a difference. The base-running was equally notable. Seven Americans stole above 100 bases. Stovey broke all records by purloining 143 bags. Latham pushed him close with 142 and Nicol had 135. Thirty men stole more than 50. The National had two men who got over the 100 mark. John Ward stole 111 and Jimmy Fogarty 102. Ten men got away with the trick 50 times and over. Of course, there will arise those to say that the catching was not as good in those days as now But a look at the list of back-stoppers in both leagues refutes this argument. They never made better catchers than donned a mask; Clements, Ganzel, Ewing, Flint, McGuire, O'Rourke, Mack,

DELMAR CROWNED DAN PATCH TO GO KING OF TROTTERS

2:01%, the greatest trotter the world has Jockey Club, which has been under in the city. The standing: Cal Davis and C. W. Kirkpatrick, of would be a good deal better if he did ever known, received a warm welcome construction since last spring, will be the Times and Spectator respectively not try to play dirty Most of the Lonthe fifth closing matinee of the Road denced by the fact that a big harness Y. M. C. A. ...... trotting king. Smathers drove Maj. already been completed with M. W. THE TURF. Delmar.

At the head of the macadam speed
At the head of the macadam speed
Patch. the famous pacer, for a trial | Sweet Marie has earned close to $25 way approach a platoon of mounted against his record of 1:56, for which a 000, ten times the sum she cost Mr. police and a delegation of road drivers liberal purse will be given. In addition Garland at auction a few years so heavy that he had to have assist- Crescent City Jockey Club's meeting, G. Snyder McGregor and a few others, ance, crowned Delmar, king of trotters, which will be in progress at the time. he having defeated all the great horses Dan Patch is now at Memphis. He will all turf history as a race machine—can of the day and won the Memphis gold be shipped to New Orleans the latter earn $10,000 or over before she is out the great horse will equal or lower his record, as the track, while a new one, bust health, ment, and then the crowd broke forth has been so constructed that it will be signed with a view to trotting as well The Southerner, 11 to 10; Gay Boy, 11 the requirements of harness racing.

THE OFFICE MUST SEEK THE MAN

King Kelly Had More Admirers O. H. A. President Objects to Reports Indicate That Governa Personal Canvass for Executive Votes.

Ten years ago Thursday, Michael J. In regard to the canvassing of votes Kelly died in Boston, Mass. A decade for election to the O. H. A. executive, fail, the dissolution of the Ontario Leghas not produced the equal of "King Mr. J. Ross Robertson, the president, islature will be announced at once, and players, tricky players, emergency ing, I believe, in the best interests of when seen yesterday, had no announce larly with regard to governing posi> the best official, and I hope you will mand that it should be the ambition of every club to send unpledged dele-

"I am moved to send this appeal because, in my judgment, a serious wrong sented to by all parties. has been done to the O. H. A. by the ing for votes

"Office should seek the man and not man the office, and this is the principle which should actuate all who have any ambition in that direction. "I am sure that you will agree with me that if the O. H. A. is to maintain admire these men for their quiet earn- its reputation as a well-conducted orestness and devotion to the success of ganization under the charge of those the team, and for their skill, but they who have the highest interests of lack the vivacity and daring possessed amateurism at heart, it must be man-

"Will you kindly have this letter Kling have proved resourceful during read to your club at its next meeting. the thick of a game when a quick idea A reading may do some good. It can

Chicago, Nov. 8 .- "Kid Farmer," the great weakness that was more or less prize fighter, on Friday was sent to accountable for his early death, his the penitentiary for life for robbery. overconvivial habits, but even in this He collapsed completely and was car-

His two partners in crime, Joseph came a warning to other brilliant ball Feinberg, his brother, and William O'Connell also were sentenced to life imprisonment. "Kid Farmer's" real name is Benjamin Feinberg. He has whipped many The impression is gradually getting good lightweights and was forging to stronger that the cabinet reconstruction MADE BATTING HEAVY good lightweights and was forging to the front of his class when he was will not be so radical as was at first caught at highway robbery. His col- rumored. Mr. Gibson is expected to

FOOTBALL. The Londons have a lead of two AGAINST HIS RECORD points in the City Association Foctball League. The Y. M. C. A. comes next and is closely followed by the Medicos. New York, Nov. 5 .- Maj. Delmar. That the plant of the New Orleans The fight is one of the closest ever seen Won. Lost. Tie. Pts

Sweet Marie has earned close to $25,a $2,500 purse is to be hung up for There will be a class for her in 1905, the yellow and black scored a shut-out against their opponents. Probably 1,200 indication of the play in Saturday's game for while the Londons were shut The wonderful mare-the greatest in cup. Mr. Smathers was congratulated part of November. It is expected that of commission, so seems a splendid investment if she keeps sound and in ro-

YESTERDAY'S TURF WINNERS At Aqueduct-Fleur de Marie, 6 to 1 exhibitions, with Trainer McDonald as running, the turns being widened to to 5; Ocean Tide, 15 to 1; Thespian,

GOOD MAJORITY FOR MR. ROSS

ment Can Be Re elected - Is Dissolution at Hand?

the game, call your attention, also a ment to make, but about the Parliafriend of hockey, to the growing evil ment buildings an announcement is expected almost any day now. The Pretions upon the executive of the O. H. mier is in excellent health, and spirits. Indeed, all who have seen him recently "You must realize as well as I do, affirm that they have not seen him that the best canvasser is not always looking so well in many years, and not misunderstand me when I suggest they predict that when he goes to the that the best interests of hockey de- country he will put up the fight of his

The North Grey election trial was to gates to the annual convention of the have been resumed yesterday, but was adjourned on Saturday, on an application made in private chambers, and as Mr. James Baird, solicited for the weakness of representatives who are | Conservatives, was asked what was the eason of the postponement. 'Dissolution, I suppose," he said "Was that reason openly given? "No, but it was mentioned indirectly Something was said about what was appearing in the papers."

Why did you consent to the post-"Oh, I consented on that understand-The day now set for the trial is Saturday, Nov. 12, which in itself is a suspicious date, as no important sitting would be begun on Saturday. There is little doubt that by Saturday, North Grey, but every seat in the Pro-vince will be vacant, by dissolution. Mr. George P. Graham, who has been slated for the provincial secretaryship. arrived in the city Sunday night. When seen he protested that he had come to the city on purely private

DOWN FOR ROBBERY business, and that his visit had abso-ternoon, but so far as he knew he would not see the Premier or any of the other During the last few days a large umber of the Liberal members of the House have called upon the Premier and no doubt he has consulted them the reorganized cabinet. Generally speaking, the reports indicate that th All three of the robbers are in the Government can be re-elected by a good majority. Among the callers was Mr lutely no political significance. He ex-

THE SIGN OF SUPERIORITY IN RUBBER FOOTWEAR! THE TRADE MARK THAT INSURES COM-PLETE SATISFACTION.

lapse in court today was a great sur- remain with the attorney-generalship

TROPHIES PRESENTED TO WINNERS AT A BANQUET OF ROAD DRIVERS

batting.

the temporary advantage zlers.

In the 80's, the twirler could take a away have little to do.

pleased in a six foot box and brawn behind every swipe.

right on top of you at that short dis- the present rules of play.

Season in a Very Appropriate Way-Dr. Wood Honored.

tance, required no little courage, but citement of a psychological discus- Knights of Pythias Hall, corner of Dun- best heats, made by Lady Mac. Mr. das and Clarence streets, last evening. some day, and then-then-will you that the horsemen of London could by Mona B. for worked trotters, and of one and all that the close should be marked in some suitable way. A banquet, at which the various trophies, could be presented, was the result. The representative horsemen of the city

There are few women indeed who o not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with chronic constipathem against Paula's bosom to ward to not suffer with the s upon Dr. Fred L. Wood and presented on behalf of the doctor's fellow-members of the association as a token of the generally. He had helped greatly to start the amateur association, and the locket was but a form of expressing the gratitude which every member felt toward him, Dr. Wood modestly replied to the honor done him, and stated that above all he was thankful that anything which he had done was appreciated. He was glad that the association had met years are now enjoying good health. and a perfect freedom from the old constipation, through the use of Anti-Pill.

Was glad that the association had met such success, and he thought every success, and he thought every success, and he thought every she laughs softly, incredulously.

Was glad that the association had met such success, and he thought every she laughs softly, incredulously.

Paula stares then her lips open and success, and he thought every she laughs softly, incredulously.

"Yes, that is right, laugh!" says Flows eagerly, still clinging to her sending its of sending its constipation, through the use of Anti-Pill.

Mrs. Tabb. 287 Emerald street north, Hamilton, Ont., says:

"I am no longer troubled with constipation. I cannot praise Anti-Pill too highly."

A month's treatment for 50 cents, All druggists, or the Wilson-Fyle Company, Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont., sole agents for Canada.

"Yes, that is right, laugh!" says Flossie, eagerly, still clinging to her flow, is flowed. The mouth, instead of the mouth, instead of the mouth, instead of the nostrils, which are choked up with Catarrh. By using Catarrhost up with Catarrhost up with Catarrh. By using Catarrhost up with Catarrh. By using Catarrhost up with Catarrh. By using Catarrhost up with Catarrhost up with Catarrh. By using Catarrhost up with Catar

Association Marks Close of the member would strive to further its interests. Although he himself had won no cups, he was always willing to go SETTING PITCHER BACK back and try, and he felt that the othe members were willing to show the same spirit.

Following the presentation Dr. Routledge was called upon to present the A more pleasing and successful clos- cup won by Ada B, owned by Mr. Wm. Frank Sage was presented by Mr. Jas. McCartney with the cup (won by Russian), and Mr. McCormick was presented by Dr. Abbott with the cup won have hoped for, and it was the feeling finally Mayor Beck presented the championship cup, donated by the Free Press, to Mr. McCormick, the cup hav-ing been won by Johnnie K.

in making the presentation the mayor spoke of the great interest that were present, and every person was en- had been stirred up by the association; thusiastic over the success of the asso- of how the horses of Canada were being raised in standard by such under-Mr. George McCormick, president of takings, and lastly he proposed that a be made to equal and surpass any show held in a city of London's size. him with a handsome gold locket, given His remarks were heartily applauded. A good musical programme was contributed during the evening by Dr. appreciation of his good services as sec- Wood, Mr. J. W. McIntosh, William Skinner William Brophy and William of inestimable benefit to the association Ward, Messrs. John Wood and Skinner acted as accompanists. The supper served was an excellent one, and was done justice to by all. Among those in attendance were Dr. Routledge, M. P. P.; Mayor Beck, Mr. George McCormick, Dr. Fred L. Wood,

The year 1887 saw the pitcher se

Carroll, Kelly, Lave Cross, Robinson

CARPETBALL.

TWO A. O. F. GAMES. Two games in the A. O. F. Carpetball J. W. McIntosh, Thomas Hamlyn, J. League were played last week. Brigh-H. Cook, J. Coleridge, W. A. Hagerman, ton beat Pride of Dominion 35 to 22, League were played last week. Brigh-W. T. Brooks, W. J. Gray, D. A. Mc- and Excelsior beat Forest City 43 to 21.

SECURING CANADIANS.