HAL CHASE EXONERATED BY PRESIDENT JOHNSON

Captain of Yanks Not New York WRITERS

Cleveland, Sept. 24.—An official ex-oneration of Hal Chase, the baseball CHASE AND STALLINGS NEVER HOLD "CONFABS." player, of the charges made against him by Manager George Stallings was issued late tonight by President Ban Johnson of the American League, following a conference with Frank Farrell, owner of the New York team.

Johnson said: "Stallings has utterly failed in his accusations against Chase. He tried to besmirch the character of a sterling player. Anybody who knows Hal Chase knows that he is not guilty of the accusations made against him and I care against

CHASE TELLS OF INCIDENT THAT HASTENED CLIMAX.

Hal Chase, when told of the complaint made against him by Manager Stallings, said tonight that the trouble had been growing for some time.

"The climax came," he said, "in the first game of the series at Chicago, which our club lost. With Daniels on second, and myself at bat, the signal was given for the hit and run. I swung at the ball and tipped a foul, which the catcher caught Daniels having started for third. and tipped a fout, which the catcher caught. Daniels having started for third base, was easily thrown out.

"That evening I went to the theatre. On my return to the hotel I met one of the New York baseball reporters on the way to the telegraph office. Having asked

Of course such events could not put one in a pleasant frame of mind. "Stallings always has shown a tendency to go behind a man's back. I feel and know that in this trouble I have the support of every member of the New York team."

In order to avoid the noise and string of callers which would drop in at a hotel downtown. Mack is anxious to play the first game of the world's series in Philadelphia, for he says he believes the team which wins the first game will more than likely win the series.
