Your subscription to The Advertiser may be the one that she will need to make up

$100 WORTH OF SUBSCRIPTIONS WHICH WILL COUNT OVER 3,000,000 EXTRA VOTES

IF SENT IN BY 10 P.M. NEXT MONDAY.

11-AUTOMOBILES-11 WILL BE GIVEN AWAY

Two new candidates enrolled Saturday and they are real workers too.

Where a person is now taking some other paper and is paid up to next August or some other date, they may pay you for a year's subscription to The Advertiser and have the paper started at the expiration of their other paper. Just make a note at the bottom of your receipt, stating when you wish to have The Advertiser started.

All candidates living outside of the City of London may work up to the last minute next Monday night, then mail their subscriptions to The Advertiser Contest Department. Some may not reach us until the following afternoon, but all such returns will be protected on the extra 300,000 vote offer.

Already we have been asked to extend the extra offer of 300,000 votes to the end of February. This we cannot do as we distinctly said at the start that this was the biggest offer in extra votes that would be given at any period of the contest and would not be repeated.

The next extra vote offer that will be given will be 250,000 and the third extra vote offer will be 200,000. So that it is up to all candidates and their friends to rush along all their subscriptions during this week so as to get in on the 300,000 extra votes.

Two hundred dollars in cash will be given to the candidate who sends in the most yearly subscriptions by 10 p.m. next Monday (Feb. 25).

Candidates in The London Advertiser Contest are again warned to be on their guard against the usual crops of "wiseacres" who are showing such a pronounced interest in their welfare, suggesting how to conduct their campaign for getting subscriptions to win one of the big prizes, and in some cases these so-called friends have even gone as far as to attempt to discourage the candidate, by putting up some counter proposition. Just ask yourself why these "so-called friends" have taken such an interest in you since you enrolled in The London Advertiser Contest. If you were not piling up a big vote total in the race for the $20,000 worth of prizes in The London Advertiser Contest, these "so-called friends" would never have taken the trouble to look you up.

A candidate who wishes to drop out of the contest may transfer his or her votes, but in each case the transfer must be to a person who has not heretofore been registered in the contest.

The name and address of all candidates working in The London Advertiser Contest is published on this page. Thus each and every candidate may be verified, which affords no opportunity for any "dummy" candidates appearing in the list.

Three and six months subscriptions count in the 300,000 extra vote offer. The same as one straight yearly subscription.
