LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

NAVAL TODAY

The first spoon match of the season, a track race at the side of the lake, will be held this afternoon.

Any one having seen or heard of the missing boy, who was last seen at New York City, please inform the police.

REWARD

Mr. P. O'Leary will pay $200 for the safe return of his horse, lost a week ago. The horse, besides money, contains valuable papers.

LEFT MANY TO MOURN

Mr. Frank Werner, who did some painting in town has left for Australia. It is said that he left some creditors behind. Too many of this class of artisans strike Campbellton and leave without paying their bills. The town is a laughing stock.

NEW FITTING ROOM

P. E. Sheppard & Co. Ladies Outfitters, are finishing a new fitting room in the rear of their building. This will give the firm extra floor space in their main store for the display of costumes, coats, furs, etc. Work will be completed in time for their fall opening.

RECORD TOW

On Friday night last or early Saturday morning, the tug William Atkinson, Capt. Pitt in command, of Charlottetown, P. E. I. assisted by the Wm. M. owned by the Dalhousie Lumber Co. towed 18,000 logs to Dalhousie, containing over one million superficial feet. The tow was taken to Dalhousie in one tide and beats all previous records.

MARRIAGE TO-MORROW

The marriage of Miss Gladys M. daughter of Mrs. Geo. Robinson, of Shigawake, P. Q. to Mr. Frederick P. Adams of Broadlands, will take place at the Episcopal Church, Shigawake, Wednesday, Sept. 1st. Many friends will join with the Graphic in wishing the young couple a happy and prosperous life.

CIRCUIT COURT

The Restigouche Circuit Court opened at Dalhousie this morning. There is only one criminal case on the docket. The civil docket comprises three cases, that of the Tribune against the town or the illegal shutting off of its water motor supply, the case of Mr. Polner against the Police, Crawford for false arrest, and the case of Mr. McKee against the Chief of Police for false arrest.

CANADIAN MAGAZINE

The September Canadian Magazine is an unusually bright number. It includes several articles of a very high order, and there are several excellent short stories by Canadian writers, including Sir James M. Leckie, R. M. Easie, Hattie E. Craig and W. E. Elliott. 'The Whale and His Haunts' gives a most vivid account of whale catching. The colored illustrations are particularly illuminating. 'Winnipeg: The Melting-Pot,' by Geo. Fisher Chapman, is a splendidly illustrated article on the polyglot population of Winnipeg and its meaning as a community. Other articles of note are 'The Orchards of Ontario,' by Agnes Dana Cameron; 'Novel Reading and Religion,' by Rev. J. Paterson Smyth; 'Plays to Reappear,' by John E. Webster, and 'Canada and Greenland,' by Robert Stein.
