THE TORONTO WORLD: THERSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 27, 1881. THE TORONTO WORLD: THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 27, 1881.

THE CITY AND VICINITY

THE PAILY ROUND OF LIFE IN ANI ABOUT TORONTO.

What the People are Doing and Saying and Thinking About-Brief Notes Ga where by Wide-Awake World Reporters. HISTORY OF LITTLE JOHNNY.

Historic of hintmession Little Johnny went to view The circus and the flip-flap flippers ; Johnny tried the flip-flap, too, Now he wears the goiden slippers. While they turned these things at will In the air or anywheres, Johnny turned one higher still, Turned clear up the goiden stairs.

Where is the Khan ?-J. Ross Robertson F. O. gave $5 to the Muskoka sufferers. The Khan will make the half breeds

How many (Hallowe'en parties have you been invited to ?

I am waiting to get a chance to thump him.-M. De Castro. It is understood Toronto i a private lying in-hospital. Yorkville taxpayers should pay up on or before the 14th of November.

Rev. John Langtry, rector of St. Luke's, is again seriously indisposed.

"I am not able to suppress street corner row.lyism"—Chief Constable Draper.

There will be a convention of license victuallers in Toronto next December. A monument to the late Col. Cumber land is being erected at Allandale station. I have gone to Winnipeg. Give my re-gards to C. W. B. and J. Ross R.-The Khan.

A detective is working up a case of indecent exposure against an east end saloon keeper.

The Grand Trunk intend to follow the example by the Credit Valley, and run Sunday trains. George Morrison of Galt challenges any man on the continent to a sack race for $100 or $500 a side. The latest thing in bon-bon boxes re sembles a pair of partly folded kid gloves, ready to put in the pocket. St. Nicholas is out for November. Th magazine is richly illustrated and filled with matter delightful to children.

Dr. Ferguson of Spadina avenue been in the Toronto hospital for six weeks past with typhoid fever. He is now on the Rev. J. Kirkpatrick, pastor of Cooke's church, preached in Grace church at Evans-ville, Ind., last Sunday. He may get a call so as not to cross, and in order to settle this the chief of the fire brigade and Mr.

The examinations in connection with the excise department are now in prog ess. There are twenty-four candidates in at-

A special meeting of the public school oard will be held to-night, for the purpose of considering the report of the committee on night schools and for general business.

The combined city charities' movement is to be revived. The mayor has called a meeting for Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the next six months, amounting to $2350. the city hall to give the scheme further

Over $14,000 was realized by the sale of Mr. G. R. R. Cockburn's household effects. Many articles went off at prices much high-

THE CRIMINAL ASSIZES. rial of Mitchell and Jacobs for Breaking Gao The Bills of the Grand Jury. There was a considerable sensation in the issize court yesterday when the foreman of he grand jury announced no bill in the the grand jury announced no bill in the case of the young bank clerk Mills, indicted for shooting with intent P. Stewart Ross. Crown Counsel Irving looked very much surprised at the finding of the jury, and it was freely commented on by many in court. "Talk about grand juries being the bul-warks of British liberty after that," said a prominent practitioner; "it's been a good bulwark to Mills but not much for justice. I can't imagine how the grand jury justice. I can't imagine how the grand jury came to such a conclusion. They must think its nothing to be shot through the acalp." The World heard other severe comments on the decision of the grand jury. Mr. Irving sent an indictment for unlawful wounding back to the jury, but i net with the same fate, whereat the worthy crown counsel was very wrathy. True bills were returned against James Jones for larceny, Edward Sevier for embezzlement, and Tobias Switzer for arson. In the case of Sarah Howe, Margaret Redfern and Charlotte Hennerty, exposing a child and George Thompson lar-ceny no bills were rturned, Switzer will be tried to-day. Sevier's trial has been moral and theological atmosphere was quiet

John Shea was put on trial for feld as a midnight village, when over-wisdom The affair happened on the 9th of Septem-ber at their house on Erin street. Mrs. Shea said that her husband hit her on the must needs poke its testing-rod into Camarina, and on the instant the whole landscape gleams ruddy with infernal light. head with a stick. Justice Cameron ad Paine and Voltaire are demanded in all diused the jury to bring in a verdict of com rections, editions, are on the point of being non assault, which they did. mon assault, which they did. The case against Billy Mitchell and Fred Jacobs for breaking gaol in July last was then proceeded with. The indictment charged them with picking the locks and breaking out through printed, copies are ordered by wholesale, the employees of one firm alone are stated to have sent for a hundred: the country. which might never have seen but few copies is likely to endure the visitation of a milback door. There was no doubt abo their getting out but the jury acquitted them after hearing a good speech in their behalf from Mr. N. G. Bigelow. The two men will probably return to the dock to-day for trial for the burglary at Saunders' tailoring establishment continued, we should assuredly see all Canada, in very reaction of obstinacy and tailoring establishment. FIRE AND GAS COMMITTEE.

The fire and gas committee yesterday conferred with the board of works on a proposition made by the Telephone com-pany. The company wish to extend their connections and erect new poles, and they offer, if permitted to do so, to allow the fire tion, it is spiritually taught. alarm wires to be placed on the same poles, and to keep both sets of wires in order. The chief question considered yesterday was whether the wires could be arranged do not see that they are soldiers praying that the enemy be not allowed to come near them; and are but advertising their fixed for Friday.

Gibson were ordered to report on the adisability of such an arrangement. A petition was received from Mr. Geo. enison and others asking to have the old ters, is busy wondering what manner of forcible argument, of fascinating style,

Denison property placed within the fire limits. The matter was laid over. Mr. Bartley appeared on behalf of the Toronto bridge company, and asked to have a fire alarm box placed on their premises. The matter was referred to the chiefs. Chief Ashfield an estimate of

A report was submitted recommending the rection of gas lamps in various parts of the city, and several members put in claims

THE KHAN'S FAREWELL.

Having been suddenly offered a position on a Winnipeg paper, he suddenly accepts, and as suddenly writes the following

And now when the days they are solemn Bursts forth in a requiem hymn.

For the place that knew him in August

No more it will know him for years, ' For he's off to the land of the raw gust,

In his panting and longing for air, he

To live in the midst of prairie, Where the buffalo maketh his nest : For his work in this city is ended, Adieu, my dearest Gilhoolev. Dwan and bould Sheehan also.

No more he will labor and toil.

And he leaves you this poem with tears.

Has turned his bold face to the west,

For he's off to the land that is splendid, Where there's occans and oceans of soil

He weeps-he weeps, and he's truly, Yes truly he's sorry to go;

And give my best love to the Colonel.

And now when the days they are dim.

doggerel

THE TORONTO WORLD: THORODAL MARKET MORENT IN CORPORATE MORENT IN CORPORATION OF A CORPORATE MORENT IN CORPORATION OF A MORENT A MORENT

tales? What of the ploughshare story-"And he was redy with his yron hote ?"

"Immoral! Gross! Obscene! Not a bilgrim shall cross the border!" He falls back on Fielding—what will he do with Tom Jones and Molly? On Richardson— Is he to let Lovelace loose on unprotected Canada? Never! But there must be some moral writers-probably the old ones-he will try the classics. Horace-pleasing name-shall give repose. Alas for the col-

By chance he opens it where Davus is describing his experience. Can it be? lion ; nay, if the attempt at repression were What meets the collectorial vision ? "Acris ubime Natura intendit, sub clara nuda lucerna— Canada, in very reaction of obstinacy and force of curiosity, reading, quoting, and there are many more—and there is Ovid, even acting in the spirit of these publica- and Martial, and the rest. "The class tions, for all of which there is no more ne-cessity than a toad has for a side-pocket. With how little wisdom, said the moralist, the world is governed. With how little, any one may add, on reading the manifesto of the clerical associa-formation of the solution of the manifesto of the clerical associa- Surely it will not do-these barmaids and muleteers in Don Qnixote. Can he take For these worthy and reverend gentlemen | refuge in history? Shall he inform the youth of Canada concerning the court, Charles II., teach them the sayings of Ether ege and of Rochester, tell them how many ladies followed with Napoleon's baggage, own inability or over-indolence to confute; while the general public, hearing of immora-lity and indecency, and full of that pecu-liar religious zeal which impels it to study the most extended reports of all such mat-wing the most extended reports of all such mat-backers followed with Napoleon's baggage, or explain what was done in his hot youth, when George the IV. was king, and every-body, collectors included, prayed every Sunday that his most excellent majesty might long reign over them? No; he must shut out history, and exclude me-moirs. He can't read them all, and who forcible' argument, of fascinating solutions, these enchanting publications must contain, the advent of which seems so dreaded and the consequences so probably overwhelm-the consequences are probably overwhelm-the consequences are probably overwhelm-the trunc to sacred history and the inspir-ed words. Are they free from what might ing; while a very great number are quietly and privately determining that, however much their perusal may injure the general public, he himself individually can stand possibly shook? Very far from it. In fact, logically and practically, to carry out this ideal the collector must prohibit en-tirely the entrance of the great bulk of it, and he will, if he can, get a look at what is most valued in English, continen

He will lose his labor. The books in tal and ancient literature, and we may

RETAIL CLOTHI

Calf Lace Boots in Half Sizes; Also, Kid and Cloth Gaiters. These goods are neat-fitting, solid in workmanship, stylish in appearance, and of our own manufacture 246 79 KING ST. EAST.

STOCK OF BOOTS AND SHUES AT CUST,

FOR THE NEXT TWO WEEKS.

INE ARTS.

93 Yonge Street

Fine Art Goods.

MATTHEWS

&

BRO.,

For All the Latest Styles ENGLISH AND AMERICAN Stiff and Soft Felt Hats MI MRATH ATLANA BAARA BA

orphans home, who was to take him in charge, but failed to see him. Yesterday the mayor gave him a pass to London.

New York World : A hotel proprietor in are reported elsewhere. Toronto, in a business letter to this office, invites the editor to make his home at the house free of charge at any time, so long as he wants to. That hotel man has got himself into a terrible scrape in case there should be another war in this country. Mr. R. K. Kernighan, known among his friends as The Khan, has left the Toronto take a position on the bright little Sun. Mr. Kernighan started for his future prairie home last night in company with Mr. W. H. Nagle, publisher of the Sun. He has the best wishes of the Toranto newspaper people in his new sphere of labor. In an account of the death of a man by an elevator accident a Milwaukee despatch says that "the body fell with a dull thud to the floor." This is right. A casualty in which there is no dull thud should not be reported. The fact that the sad event ast a gloom over the entire community was and gentlemen. "Only a Farmer's Daughter" will run for some unexplained reason, however, not stated.—Unconsidered trifles in New York for the remainder of the week. The audi-World. The Knox church young people's associa-tion will be officered as follows this season: ences are increasing nightly, which is a good sign that the play is taking well.

Honorary president, Rev. H. M. Parsons; president, Wm. Anderson; 1st vice presi-dent, S. C. Duncan Clarke; 2nd vice-president, James Knowles, jr.; secretary, Ed-ward J. Diganin; assistant secretary, Miss J. Sinclair; editor of journal, Dr. Davidson. Executive committee: Miss Parsons, Miss George and D. McLaren. Inspector Stuart has a very odd tobacco s made out of the skin of an albatross' foot,

The Khan in this sparkling column and is shaped something like an envelope. There are three of the birds claws in the pouch, which is of a yellow color and looks as if it has done long and faithful service as a receptacle for the weed. The inspector values it very highly.

The coupty orange lodge met last night, with county master E. F. Clarke in the chair: A detailed statement of receipts and spenditures in connection with the ademonstration in this city on the welfth was submitted. The receipts all sources were $3468.56, and the ex; additure amounted to $1321.52, leaving a balance of $2147.04, which will be placed he credit of the orange hall building This fund is rapidly increasing, bedy over $6000, and the success of th ject is assured. And McGoherty aisy and true, vas a nice young man from Buffalo ane over here to work in a Front stablishment. His employer took y to him the first day, asking him to " "checking off" and " calling back " To the cells that are deep and infernal And all of the firemen, too. And when you are at it go hunting And find out a man in the Mail. And whisper to Christopher Bunting the sizes of certain goods. All went weli until the youth, in finishing up a string of number, called out : "Fifty-five, e-leven, fort) for—Keno!" A great solemn hush fell over the rest of the clerks as the old man unled the bluebing lad up to the deal The Khan is no longer for sale. But John Ross is the man I'm sorry for, For I left the poor shap in the lurch; I'd better be off by to-worrow, for fell over the rest of the clerks as the old man alled the blushing lad up to the desk and desired an explanation, and the mis-guided youth put his foot in deeper by stammering out that it was only "force of habit" made him say it. The old gentle-man eyed him calmly for a moment and then, laying down 75 cents for his day's wage said : "Boy, 'rake the pot' and go and renounce your sins." He'll be hunting me round with a birch, Oh think of the heart so galvanic, The strange, the wonderful man, Remember the writing satanic. Remember-remember the Khan.

-The Toronto Turkish Baths, 233 Queer street west, are open every day from 7 a.m. 80 9 p.m.

consideration.
Over $14,000 was realized by the sale of Mr. G. R. R. Cockburn's household effects.
Many articles went off at prices much high the range to readitional lamps.
Mr. G. R. R. Cockburn's household effects.
Many articles went off at prices much high the transfer of grant loss. The sale is and to be the largest of the kind in Candad.
What saddens My Durling This Even, and s.
What saddens My Durling This Even, and s.
Watter WOOdruff was granted permission to evect a steam engine on his promises, 22 Queen street east.
WATERWORKS COMMITTEE.
At yesterday's meeting the engineer reprised to be invery ported tat be had been requested by the sale of the work would not allow in the tword the test of the state of the work would not allow in the state of the work would not allow in the state of the work would not allow in the state of the work would not allow in the state of the state of the state and and crepty, in this granter is considering to wate the state of the sock attend the tender of England's free thought of the contractor to allow him an estimate upon the work allow in the falt fully convinced that little or othing more could be done this sensor. A statement was appened showing blat the other work on the state of the constactors was $18,67614. The engineer further stated that upon this work of the state to give an estimate, the contractor of sock in trade of the constactors was $18,67614. The engineer further stated that upon this work of the state agent of the work would at the world the work of the constactors was $18,67614. The engineer further stated that upon this work of the engineer. The constactors was $18,67614. The engineer intract state that was referred to the constactors was $18,67614. The engineer intract state that was referred to the sensition to yet and the charman of the mock were were wided by was to take. In the engineer interest the work in the engineer in the state of the state of the work w The matter was referred to the engingeer, the city solicitor and the charman of the board. The other matters of importance now are the three butter and dissolute chap-parsons—the drunken and dissolute chap-lains—the frequent and bloated pluralist? evil is very slight compared with what inflicted elsewhere R. W. PHIPPS. Where now the immoralities of the abbeys inflicted elsewhere the hordes of idle friars who once wandered Toronto, Oct. 23, ROYAL OPERA HOUSE. Manager Conner is to be congratulated upon the taste and judgment he has exer-demolished stronghold has departed the the base presented a series of fine plays at the Royal this season, the least of which is "Only a Farmer's Daughter," now the Royal this season, the least of which is "Only a Farmer's Daughter," now being played there by Manager Gardiner's nor gallery of pictures, but a deserted lumber room, the door of which he will company. The piece is one of sustained interest throught, and has a number of taking points; and what is fully as essen-But, though these volumes be now of taking points; and what is fully as essen-tial to the success of a dramatic work, it is played in a superior manner. The bean-tiful Miss Lillian Cleves assumes the lead-ing role in a way that never fails to excite the admiration of her auditors, no matter what their opinion may be of the character the lock to up t diminished argumentative force and of anti-and Judge Osler held the plea bad. Howthe admiration of her auditors, no matter what their opinion may be of the character of the woman she plays. She is ably sup-ported by Miss Bertha Welby, Mr. Richard Foote, Mr. Elliot Barnes, and other ladies and contamen signt - of were noise. The only class who were inot enumerate. The only class who were likely to read them they would not have injured. Of themselves, they could never have attracted other readers. But an offi-cial action, which I must call most unvise, and to which might honestly be applied epithets more forcible, can hardly now be prevented from forcing them into the hands, and by every attraction of roused curiosity, pressing them on the attention of a very much larger class, among whom they may do very great injury indeed. Their day was past. What good—what evil— they could naturally perform was done, and they would have done no more. They laid innocuous on the shelf, a half-forgotten memory of a violent and a fraitful period. But when the rulers of a country deliber-ately set the powerful machinery at their command at work in the manufacture of command at work in the manufacture of unnecessary evil, there are few materials joined, of course. When the story got to this point the ex-alderman interrupted with and this, most unfortunately and most needlessly, is being done here to-day. "if old Bill Shakspeare had been there he would have stood a bottle of wine." needlessly, is being done here to-day. Their alleged immorality is another

JUDGMENTS AT OSGOODE HALL.

Their alleged immorative is another apart from their inidelity, they are but on a level with the ordinary literature of their day. It is not, of course, claimed that these or any authors advocate directly im-morality ; the charge is that the description familiarizes with, and tends to the commis-sion of that which is similar. But what can eollector of customs do in the matter ? Sup-pose our Toronto dicial sets to work at this business. He examines English liter-tree. What will he do with Shakespeare the examines the scenes in Troilus and Cressida—he reads the conversions be-tween the princess and the lords in Love's Labor Lost; the reads the sonnets—what can be say ! "Grossly immoral !" "Shakes-peare cannot be almitted " He tries others-what of Smollet!" He reads Roderick frandom's French adventure—the existion of the redoubtable Peregrine—the scenes of the continent—the vertors maids and mat-fornication be nak? ! "Undoubtedly ver-must exclude Smollet!" Well, their Sterne. He read Tristram Shandy. 1 wonder, by the way, if our learned arch bishop agrees with the learned accords of the schule with the learned rode story the definition for judgment was granted, our the bill bos filed. In Trust and Lease to the bill bos fin affair. As to their coarseness or impurity, apart from their infidelity, they are but on

C. K. ROGERS, Just to hand: Men's French Calf and Cordwan Hand-sewed Balmorals at our usual Low Prices. Winter goods fully as-sorted and Cheap. 246 125 Yonge street. HAT CLEANING. WM. SIMPSON, 68 QUEEN STREET WEST. We are making Stiff Cloth Hats to match Suits. We are making Silk and Pullover We are making old Hats over. To what awkward purpose they work in custom houses is plain enough; but the We have improved and enlarged what Call. Examine. Gilders, Importers Steel Engravings and other Toronto, Oct. 23, 1881. SMITH, opp. St. Charles Restaurant. THE BKACKLIST CASE. UNDERTAKERS In our Ougoode hall notes yesterday we mentioned a case of Roberts v. Climie, in which the defendant, a license inspector J. YOUNG, was sued for libel-the libel consisting in publishing the plaintiff's name in a list of THE LEADING UNDERTAKER. 347 YONGE STREET. AT TELEPHONE COMUNICATION. V. P. HUMPHREY, JNDERTAKER, THE JEW, THE CHRISTIAN, AND THE ALDERMAN, 309 Yonge St., Opp. Agnes St. Night calls promptly attended to. M. M'CABE & CO. UNDERTABLES, 333 QUEN STREET WEST, ORDERS ATTENDED TO NIGHT AND DAY. M. MOLAN, 537 Queen street west. Funerals supplied in First-Class style at the Lowest Rates. The best Hearse in To-ronto. Telephone communication with all parts of the City.

TORONTO, 6th October, 1881.

NOTICE is hereby given that, under an N Order-in-Council, Timber Berths in the undermentioned townships in the Mus-

PLUMBER, STEAM AND GAS FITTER,

109 CHURCH STREET. Alle Orders Personally and Promptly Attended To.

PICTURES, ETC., FRAMED TO ORDER. INSURANCE SOLID PROGRESS.

Showing a contraction of 32 per cent. in Income, and of 31 per cent. in Insur-ance. During the same period the ÆTNA LIFE'S contraction was but 27 and 22 per cent., while its

Year.	Amount at Risk. 1	Assets.	I Surplus.
1872	$100,617,773	$18.077.540	$2,153,962
1873	98,864,149	19.482.417	2.898,789
1874	94,506,992	20,657,603	3.213.660
1875	91,454,011	22.092.734	3,586,660
1876	87.385.555	23,357,648	3.878.508
1877	82.719.074	24.141.125	4.179.030
1878	79,568,066	25,120,804	4.764.636
1879	77.738.038	25,636,195	4.989.633
1880	77,951,819	26,403,440	5,387,773
T 1000 13 4		20,100,110	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •

PLUMBING AND GASFITTING

J. N. O'NEIL,

WILLIAM H. ORR, Manager.

-Why suffer from Indigestion and Dys-pepsia when Burdock Blood Bitters will positively cure these alments? A trial bottle only costs 10 cents. 23456. -Thousands suffer untold miserie from Nervous Weakness, Pain in the back, and other distances and another from from other distressing symptoms arising from disordered Kidneys. Burdock Blood Bit-fers is the sovereign remedy. Trial bottle