An Injustice to Purkdale Yachtame EDITOR WORLD: The citizens of Tosthrough the Committee of Managements of Dominion Day Celebration, gave a conumber of prizes to be competed for by a boats in the races on that day to be held the auspices of the Royal Canadian Y Club. I, as a citizen and a member of Parkdale Beating Club, made application entry and was told that no hoats but belonging to members of the Royal Cana Yacht Club could compete, and that it injustice to members of other clubs in city and a misappropriation of the citimoney. I do not think when the grant made that such was the intention but it was to be a competition open and from members of any boating club in the city is not yet too late for justice to be done.
