Hallowe'en

It is curious that Hallowe'en, the eve of All Saint's day, should ever have come to be observed with wild sky-larking, buffoonery and masquerade. The explanation is, of course, that, in spite of its name, Hallowe'en has no connection with the festival of All Saints. It appears to have had its origin in a Druidic festival, celebrated with many superstitious rites. These, in modified form, survived the introduction of Christianity into Britain, and subsequent Anglo-Saxon and Celtic ingenuity and superstition were responsible for still further additions.

Of late there has been—in the country districts, at least—some improvement in the manner of celebrating Hallowe'en. The practice of carrying off gates, breaking down fences and defacing property is less popular than it was, and may soon become happily obsolete. In many towns and cities, however, Hallowe'en is still a synonym for disturbance. Masks and fancy costumes are a shield for rowdy conduct and horns and whistles make the night odious. It is not necessary to strip Hallowe'en of its traditional quality of festivity and merrymaking; but its observance should cease to be so grotesquely at odds with the character of the day that follows, from which it derives its name.

Encouraging the Advertiser

If newspaper advertising leads you to some purchase or transaction that results to your advantage, or if it points the way to easier and more comfortable shopping and business dealing—in short, if it in any way works to your advantage as a reader of this newspaper, why not tell the advertiser so, if an opportunity offers?

If an advertiser is business-like and progressive enough to place his proposition within your reach through the columns of this newspaper, he deserves to be encouraged. He should know that your patronage at least was secured by means of his advertising in The Guide-Advocate.

Without a doubt any one of our advertisers would be glad to know that you have benefited by his announcements, and would welcome your ideas and remarks upon that very important part of his business.

Plympton Council

Council met as per adjournment on Oct. 18th, members all present. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

E. Donald, Land and Tax Commissioner, G. T. R., addressed the council in reference to assessment on Manning drain, claiming that the company were exempt from assessment under an agreement made the 9th day of January, 1907, and signed by R. G. Bailey as reeve, and that the culvert under the railway track was larger than was necessary.

The report of engineer Jones on the repair of the Noble-Wilson drain was read. Nearly all the parties interested were present and objected to the work being gone on with, claiming that it would be an unnecessary expense and would be no benefit to them. Laid over till next meeting.

D. F. Smith complained that the McIntyre award drain was out of repair. Referred to the reeve with power to act. Councillor McLaren was instructed to have a wire fence built across the end of the Kingston gravel pit to prevent the line fence being undermined.

The reeve and Mr. McLaren were appointed to investigate the complaint of Mr. Bell with power to act or report. The reeve and Mr. Montgomery were instructed to examine a drain in Camlachie with power to act.

Thos. Patton presented a petition offering to gravel the roads around Camlachie if council would bear half the expense. Granted limit $100.

James Dewar and others presented a petition to gravel S. L. south of Waukesha, offering to bear half the cost, which was also granted up to $100.

Interesting News Items

Chicago, Oct. 28.—The first butter ever received in the local market from Siberia and Argentine made its appearance today. 750 pounds from Siberia and 500 pounds from the Argentine. The importation with a chance of profit was made possible by the new tariff law.

St. Catharines, Oct. 28.—John Dickinson, a Toronto commercial man, admitted saying "Good evening" to a good looking girl on his arrival in the city last night. The other party concerned proved to be the wife of a St. Catharines policeman, and the traveller was obliged to-day to pay $5.00.

While in a fit of delirium attendant on an attack of typhoid fever, John Daly, Toronto, a bartender employed at a King street hotel, eluded the vigilance of his nurse and, seizing a table-knife, attempted to cut his throat. Fortunately the weapon which he seized was not possessed of a sharp blade, and before he could succeed in harming himself he was seized and disarmed.

Leamington, Oct. 28.—A distressing accident occurred here at about 10 o'clock this morning, when Isaac Hartwick, an employee of the Ludlum Ainslie Lumber Co., had both legs severed, one above the knee and the other below. The unfortunate man was in the act of trying to stop a skunk car with a pinch bar when he was thrown on to the track. Hartwick is a married man of about 40 years of age, with a family of eight children. He was taken to the hospital here, but it is not known as yet how the injuries will terminate.

Granton, Ont., Oct. 28.—Driving home a load of tile from Crediton last evening, Jas. O'Keefe, aged forty, was hurled to the road when the horses took fright near his old gate and swerved sharply. The wheels passed over his head, and he was buried beneath the heavy tile. The injuries to his head proved fatal.

Chatham, Oct. 28.—Last evening the Wolverine Express on the Michigan Central struck some horses owned by John Houston, of Harwich, which had wandered out of a pasture on the tenth cessation of Raleigh and got on to the railway tracks. It is reported here that ten horses were killed outright, and that one more was very badly injured. The express was held up for about an hour while the carcasses were removed from the rails and from the wheels of the train.

Edward Smith, of Ailsa Craig, convicted of assault upon a 12-year-old girl, was Tuesday, sentenced by Judge Macbeth, to 23 months in prison with hard labor and 30 lashes, fifteen two months after his incarceration, and fifteen in fourteen months. Smith had nothing to say, and exhibited no particular expression of feeling on being sentenced.

Detroit, Oct. 28.—Edgar H. Best, of Strathroy, Ont., reported to the police to-day that he had been held up and robbed of a small amount of cash and an imitation diamond ring in a dark alley off Brush street early to-day. It is thought the thief saw the stone on Best's finger, and, believing it valuable, followed him until he was able to quietly knock him down and rob him. Best was struck over the head with a heavy club and obliged to go to St. Mary's Hospital, where the scalp wound was sewn up.

Harrison, Oct. 29.—Fred Harper drove into Midway for the purpose of attending the meeting and put his horse and buggy in the sheds of the Royal Hotel. During his absence some person or persons, after carefully hurrying away the hair on both sides of the horse over the flank, applied a blister, which has the effect of eating into the flesh. As Mr. Harper held the horse and was to have delivered it on Saturday, it not only caused the animal considerable pain, but spoiled a good sale for the owner, as he was offered a good price.

Workers or Shirkers?

Those dairy farmers who are carefully noting the total production of each of their cows for the season are finding some curious differences. For instance, in one Ontario herd the yield of a 3-year-old that freshened March 5th was 4,080 pounds of milk up to the end of July; her stable mate, also 3 years old that freshened March 12th, receiving the same feed and care gave only 2,370 pounds of milk. Over half a ton of milk in that short period indicates a considerable difference in income between the two cows.

In another herd at the same factory between two six-year-olds that calved April 3rd and 4th, there is a difference of 1,400 pounds of milk and 60 pounds of fat up to the end of July. This means between fourteen and fifteen dollars that one cow earned more than the other. Are your cows workers or shirkers? Dairy records alone will provide the means of ascertaining these facts beyond question. Forms for weighing milk, either daily, or on three days per month, are supplied free by the dairy division, Ottawa. In your letter of application state which you want.

Baby Footwear

The babies, bless them! should be as much attended to as the "grown-ups" so far as footwear is concerned. Too many shoemen make more of an effort to please the mothers than the babies when fitting the tots with footwear. And yet the babies have their rights. Many a child's feet is spoiled in its early infancy through improper fitting.

We have studied this matter closely and we respectfully ask you to call in and discuss the question with us before you buy that next pair.

Here are some little novelties we have for the babes:
