Jasper, Minn.—"I saw in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took it because I was hav-not do my work. I had tried other medicines, but none did me the good that your Vegetable Compound did. Now I am able to do all my work alone while before I had my daugh-

JESSE PETERSEN, Route 1, Jasper, Minn.

There is no better reason for your trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound than this—it has helped other women. So if you suffer from displac-

CLEGGYMAN QUITS CHURCH
AFTER WIFE DEPARTS

Louisville Woman Tires Of Being Curate's Wife And Goes Home

New York, Feb. 12.—The Rev.
Arthur W. Brooks has resigned as curate of the Episcopal Church of the Messiah, in Brooklyn, of which the Rev. St. Clair Hester is the rector.
Mr. Brooks took the step to save the church from embarrassment because he and his wife, Mrs. Virginia Mc-Kinley Brooks, are living apart.

Mrs. Brooks is now with her parents at Louisville, Ky.
"Mr. Brooks has told me something about the trouble between him and his wife," said Dr. Hester. "I did not know it was so serious and I am very sorry it has become public. I believe Mr. Brooks felt that his wife might bring matters to such a point that his continued connection with the church might tend to embarrass it, so he tendered his resignation."

"I believe that twice before he had fitted up a fine comfortable home for her and each time she became upset about something and went back to her parents. This makes the third time.
I have found nothing in the conduct of Mr. Brooks to merit criticism."

Mr. Brooks said it was true that his wife had left him. "The only reasons I can ascribe for her action is a mental strain," he said.

"I think that of the secret of it all is that she is tired of being the wife of a clergyman. The salary is limited."

GOLDEN WEDDING

(Digby Courier)
A very interesting event took place on Tuesday at Deep Brook when Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Sully celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding.

It was at Deep Brook on February 14th, 1872, Albert Gilpin Sully, son of Jeremiah and Jane (Boyer) Sully, and Elizabeth Ruggles, daughter of William and Charlotte (Eason) Ruggles, were made man and wife by Rev.
William Godfrey, then rector of the parish of St. Clement, Clementsport.

Of those present at the wedding, exclusive of the bride and groom, who helped celebrate the anniversary, were Mrs. James Ray and Charles Ruggles, of Deep Brook, sister and brother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs.
Sully brought up a family of nine children and the eldest grandchild did not take place until three years ago, when the youngest of the family, Frederick O., died, aged twenty-five years. Of the other eight, six were present at the anniversary on Tuesday, as follows: Miss Clara M. Sully, Deep Brook; Miss Louie A. Sully, of Annapolis Royal; Mrs. B. C. Clarke, of Deep River; Mrs. Frank Roop, of Digby; Henry Sully, of Deep Brook, and W. A. Sully, of Digby. The absentees were Miss Mary I. Sully, of Newton Centre, Mass., and Mrs.
Hines, of Brookline, Mass. The happy couple were the recipients of many telegrams and letters of congratulation, as well as more tangible marks of esteem, including a purse of $60 in cash (mostly in gold) from the children, grandchildren, and friends, and a handsome bouquet of carnations from the children. All the gifts were placed in a basket and the presentation was made by Mrs. Frank Roop, one of the daughters.

ANNAPOLIS COUNTY GIRLS' SUCCESS IN MUSICAL WORLD

At a recent evening of song at the Fiatbush Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, N.Y., Miss Blanche Messinger sang four numbers: Swiss Echo Song, The Rosary (a duet by Miss Messinger and Miss Whitson) Valzer di Musetta and The Queen of Night.

Following is a letter received from the Secretary:—

Brooklyn, N. Y.
Jan. 27, 1922

My Dear Miss Messenger: Enclosed please find check. The ladies of the Winter Group wish me to thank you and to tell you how much they appreciate your singing. It was a real treat to hear your beautiful voice. I suppose and hope a few years from now I will be paying five dollars a seat to hear you.

Wishing for you the greatest success for the future, I am, Very sincerely yours, (Sgd.) ELLA M. BREEN, Secty.
Winter Group.

Miss Messenger, who is a daughter of H. W. Messinger, a former teacher of Annapolis County, but now on the staff of the Railway Commission, Ottawa, sang at Mrs. John D. Rock-fellow's, Jr., on the 7th of the month at a great musical gathering.

Economy

"So your brother Mike's got a job as night watchman. He'll save money."

"Phy so?"

"Sure, he can sleep all day an' save his board, and work all night an' save his lodg'n."

Good Advice

Boarding-house Keeper:—"Good gracious! I found three big rats in the pantry. How in the world can I get rid of them?"

Boarder:—"Close the door on them and let them starve to death."

WINS VALUABLE PRIZE IN BIG SALESMANSHIP CONTEST

Mr. C. B. Tupper, of Bridgetown, who sells the Rawleigh Good Health products in Annapolis County, is being congratulated by his friends for his success in winning a valuable prize in a three months' salesmanship contest conducted by his company. This is both an honor and a distinctive achievement for there are nearly 5,000 people in all parts of the United States and Canada engaged in distributing the products of The W. T. Rawleigh Company direct to the homes of approximately 20,000,000 users. The contest commenced from October 1st to December 31st, and the prizes were awarded to those retailers who secured the largest number of points for sales, collections, days of selling, payments made, prompt reporting, and recruiting new sales people.

The prize won by Mr. Tupper is a beautiful and valuable oil painting which he highly prizes as a souvenir of his successful participation in so large a contest.

The sales organization of The W. T.
Rawleigh Company was divided into seventeen districts for the contest and six principal prizes were set aside for the leaders in each district. Most of the prizes were selected from Rawleigh's Oriental shop at Freeport, Ill., and were personally selected and bought by the President, Mr. W. T.
Rawleigh during his extended business tour abroad in 1920. They consist of Oriental rugs, Venetian glassware, Vienna bronzes, Vienna oil paintings, Turkish pottery, beaded bags, silk scarves, Elkhorn smoking stools, Albrons, marble statues and and bill books.

Mr. Tupper has been selling Rawleigh products for two years, calling upon his customers about four times a year. He is enthusiastic about his business and his line of about one hundred and fifty Rawleigh products which he says never fail to give satisfaction. He is particularly proud of The W. T. Rawleigh Company, the largest, strongest, most complete and the leading company of its kind. Its home office and main laboratories and factories are located at Freeport, Ill., with large branch factories at Memphis, Tenn., and Winnipeg, Man., and distributing branches at Chester, Pa., and Oakland, Calif., Minneapolis, Minn., London, Ont., and Montreal, Quebec.

Mr. Tupper says that retailing Rawleigh's products is a pleasant, healthful, independent, permanent and very useful business and that he has had good success and has prospered in it because of his industry and the real service he renders to his customers in supplying them with the Rawleigh Good Health products.
These products consist of food products, flavors, extracts, spices, soaps, toilet accessories, household medicines, veterinary preparations, disinfectants, insecticides, and poultry preparations, which are all of the very highest quality and practical and useful in every home.

Customers of Mr. Tupper are especially pleased with his success and good fortune in winning such a prize.

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL
(Spectator)
Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Harris, of Bear River, were in town over the week end. Mrs. Harris and son returned on Tuesday.

Kenneth Covert, of C. B. Longmire & Co., left last week for a trip to Boston, his place being taken by Mr.
Lane, of Bridgetown.

Miss Pearl Chute, County nurse was in town last week with a good clinic and a lot of efficient work among the school children.

Mrs. W. H. Edwards, of Annapolis Royal, passed through Yarmouth on Tuesday evening and took passage by the Prince Arthur to visit in Boston.

Mrs. J. E. Farrell, of Hyde Park, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs.
Lenfest Ruggles. It is gratifying to know that Mrs. Ruggles seems to be gaining strength this week and a steady recovery is now hoped for.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Parrott, formerly of 72 Cook Street, and now living at Lower Granville, N.S., announce the engagement of their daughter, Blanche Luella, to Alfred Wiswell Farnsworth, of Lower Granville, N.S.

A. M. King made a trip to Halifax last week and invested a fine slice of cash in a high grade Newcombe piano for the music room of the new theatre. The instrument arrived here on Saturday and was promptly installed and got in time for the Oddfellows' dance on Monday night.

TENNIS DANCE AT DIGBY

The Valentine dance given by the Tennis Club on Tuesday evening in the Myrtle House, Digby, was an unqualified success in every respect.
The weather was all that could be expected at this time of the year, the attendance was good and the music, by Leslie's orchestra, of Bridgetown, all that could be desired. A splendid programme of dances was carried out.
The chaperones for the evening were Mrs. A. T. Spurr, Mrs. Lindsay Haines, and Mrs. F. V. Nichols.

WESTERN STAR LODGE
HAPPY AGAIN IN NEW HOME

Grand Opening Of Splendid I. O. O. F.
Lodge Rooms At Annapolis Royal.

Annapolis Royal, Feb. 14.—Last night was a grand occasion for Western Star Lodge, I. O. O. F. The big fire of September 7th destroyed the splendid suite of rooms in the Runciman Block, occupied by the Lodge for a number of years. These rooms were attractively furnished, and provided a very homelike place for the meeting of the boys. But the fire changed all that. Since it was burnt out, the Lodge has met in the old room in the O'Dell Building, at the head of the Ferry Slip, where it was organized forty-eight years ago, and for succeeding years held its weekly sessions.

But now the Lodge has a new home in the King Building, opposite the Post Office. The opening of A. M.
King's new theatre has been previously reported and commented upon. The I. O. O. F. rooms are on the second floor, and are just completed. The room in which the Lodge will meet is over forty feet square. It has a metal ceiling in an attractive design and a finished hardwood floor. There is also a commodious robing room.
In addition to these rooms there is a well finished hall in the front of the building, about thirty feet square, that is available for entertaining purposes.

Last night this whole building, with all its spacious rooms, was occupied by the Oddfellows. They first put on a movie show, consisting of Charlie Chaplin's latest comedy, "The Idle Class," and the six-reel feature, "The Witching Hours."

From the theatre the company went upstairs to the new Lodge room, where the dedication ceremonies were conducted by the Grand Master, Charles L. Wood, of Windsor. This was a very impressive service. An interesting feature of the proceedings was the fraternal greetings and congratulations of the Annapolis Royal Lodge of A. F. & A. M., conveyed by the appointed representative, Dr. L.
B. W. Braine.

The Grand Master, in his address, spoke with feeling of the morning after the fire looking upon the ruins of the old Lodge rooms, where he had been initiated into the mysteries of Oddfellowship, and congratulated the Lodge upon so soon being able to move into their new building. During the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of the Maritime Provinces have been burned, but the Western Star is the first one to move into its new home.

After the dedication ceremony, the front hall was occupied by a happy band of dancers. Grey-haired grandfathers mingled with the budding maids in their teens, and joined in the giddy swirl. The easy grace with which these veterans tripped off the light fantastic was in striking contrast to the stooped and apparently unsteady step in the street.

The evening's entertainment closed with a splendid collection of refreshments. Thus by a grand variety of entertainment the Oddfellows were induced into their new home in the King Building.
