

SENSATION ROCK, CEYLON.

dominates the whole valley. From the summit of Allagalla the old Kandyan kings used to hurl those whom they suspected of treason. Beautiful waterfalls are revealed up the glens as the train climbs slowly by, while others rush under the railway bridges, to leap into mid-air and lose themselves in clouds of mist and spray, on which the sun dances in all the colours of the rainbow. A few miles from Kandy the train, after passing through several tunnels, runs over what is called "Sensation Rock," skirting the edge of the cliff so closely that the sight drops a thousand feet before it rests on anything on which a blade of grass or a tropical creeper can lay hold.

Kandy has little of interest, except the world-renowned Temple of the Sacred Tooth of Buddha. The temple is a small building,
