FIRE! FIRE!!

F. W. HATHEWAY, Agent for the PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY, continues to Insure Property of all descriptions against Loss or Damage by Fire, at very low rates, so that parties for a very small sum may keep their property safe, which, in case of any accident, would prove of great importance to them and the amount of Premium would never be missed should they be fortunate enough to escape the devouring element. Personal attendance to survey free of expense to applicants within the limits of the Town. Applicants from the Country must describe the Property wished to be Insured, and must always be bound by the description they give. Fredericton, 17th November, 1843.
