ALBRECHT & WITT,
STAMP DEALERS AND PUBLISHERS.
90 NASSAU ST., NEW YORK.

DEAR SIR:

We are constantly buying collections and pay the highest possible price for same. But as our customers are mostly advanced collectors, we have only a limited market for stamps worth up to 50 cents each. Stamps below that price, remainders of collections we have been breaking up, we wish to sell in packages of 400 varieties for $2 00. You will find amongst them good, saleable stamps, just the thing to complete your own collection, or to place on sheets for circulation. Try it in ordering a package, and you will find out that the same are only put up to save us time and labor, and to prevent an accumulation of stock for which we have no market at present.

Hoping to receive your valuable orders,

We remain, yours respectfully,
ALBRECHT & WITT.

Above advertisement was published for the first time on April 16, and since then we have sold

140 PACKAGES

The contents of the same cannot be equalled by any other dealer.

"I received 400-variety packet, and must say it is far beyond my expectation; it is the best I ever received for the money. I enclose $2 for another packet. LOUIS A. THOMPSON, Kendallville, Ind."

A good many more similar testimonials are at hand.

To buyers of above packet we offer another inducement; We shall give the English Jubilee envelope (used or unused, as it may be ordered) with the $2 packet for only 25 cents.

$2.25 for 400-variety packet and English Jubilee Envelope.
