

A CAMPAIGN SECRET GIVEN AWAY.

In the campaign of 1884 the two candidates for governor in a "pivotal" Western State arranged for a series of joint discussions. Both men were popular, both of fine appearance and were so well matched in mental force and as orators that the contest between them promised to be a magnificent one. For several weeks the scales balanced evenly.

But one day the brilliant Republican candidate came up ailing. He seemed overcome and spoke labourably. The next day he was even less effective. Later he was compelled to ask his opponent for a postponement of certain appointments, which was granted. Before the campaign ended he had abandoned the field altogether.

Meantime the Democratic candidate continued his canvass, seeming to grow stronger, cheerier and more effective with each succeeding week. He was elected. One evening in December while entertaining several gentlemen he said:

"I will tell you a campaign secret—which gave me the election. With the opening of my campaign I began caring for my liver. I knew that a disordered or torpid liver meant dullness and possible sickness. I took something every day. When my opponent began failing I knew his trouble to be his liver and felt like prescribing for him, but feared if I did so he might beat me! I grew stronger as the campaign progressed, often making two speeches a day. Even my voice, to my surprise, did not fail me once. All because Warner's safe cure kept me in 'A1 trim.' Ex-Governor Jacob, of Kentucky, also made a campaign tour under precisely similar circumstances and says he kept up under the exhausting strain by use of the same means.—Rivester Union.

FROM THE PRESIDENT OF BAYLOR UNIVERSITY.

Independence, Texas, Sept. 26, 1882.

Gentlemen:

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Has been used in my household for three reasons:—

- 1st. To prevent falling out of the hair.
2d. To prevent too rapid change of color.
3d. As a dressing.

It has given entire satisfaction in every instance. Yours respectfully, Wm. Carey Crane."

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is entirely free from uncleanly, dangerous, or injurious substances. It prevents the hair from turning gray, restores gray hair to its original color, prevents baldness, preserves the hair and promotes its growth, cures dandruff and all diseases of the hair and scalp, and is, at the same time, a very superior and desirable dressing.

WHAT IS CATARRH?

Catarrh is a mucopurulent discharge caused by the presence and development of the vegetable parasite amoeba in the internal lining membrane of the nose. This parasite is only developed under favourable circumstances, and these are:—Morbid state of the blood, as the blighted corpuscle of tubercle, the germ poison of syphilis, mercury, toxomera, from the retention of the effete matter of the skin, suppressed perspiration, badly ventilated sleeping apartments, and other poisons that are germinated in the blood. These poisons keep the internal lining membrane of the nose in a constant state of irritation, ever ready for the deposit of the seeds of these germs, which spread up the nostrils and down the fauces, or back of the throat, causing ulceration of the throat, up the Eustachian tubes, causing deafness; burrowing in the sinuses, causing hoarseness; usurping the proper structure of the bronchial tubes, ending in pulmonary consumption and death. Many attempts have been made to discover a cure for this distressing disease by the use of inhalants and other ingenious devices, but none of these treatments can do a particle of good until the parasites are either destroyed or removed from the mucous tissue. Some time since a well-known physician of forty years' standing, after much experimenting, succeeded in discovering the necessary combination of ingredients which never fail in absolutely and permanently eradicating this horrible disease, whether standing for one year or forty years. Those who may be suffering from the above disease, should, without delay, communicate with the business managers—Toronto Mail, Messrs. A. H. DIXON & SON, 205 King St. West, Toronto, Canada. In loose stamp for their treatise on Catarrh.

Words of the Wise.

God's children as long as they are in this world, are growing.

The work of religion is of no service any further than the heart is engaged in it.

THERE is nothing better than a good wife, and nothing worse than a bad one.—Hesiod.

NOT the success thou gapest

Will be the test at last

By which the Master judgeth

The service of the past:

But lowly, quiet efforts,

The honest love and care,

The patient, constant spirit,

The truthful, fervent prayer,

These are by Him recorded,

Each one to Him is known:

These will He then acknowledge,

Regard, approve and own.

VIRTUE alone outbuilds the pyramids; her monuments shall last when Egypt's fall.—E. Young.

IT is common for those that are indulgent to their own sin, to be severe against the sins of others.

If God gives us food for our lives, let us not, with murmuring Israel, ask food for our lusts.

THE aching head may cease to throb when laid upon that softest pillow for human pain—"God knows!"

ALL along the pathway of life are tombstones, by the side of which we have promised to strive for heaven.

ON Thee we fling our burdened woe

Oh love divine, forever dear!

Content to suffer while we know,

Living and dying, Thou art near.

—Holmes.

THOSE that would be safe have need to be suspicious of the tempter. The garrison that sounds a parley is not far from being surrendered.

Grace is the essence of the Gospel. Grace is the one hope for this fallen world! Grace is the sole comfort of saints looking forward for glory!—Spurgeon.

THOSE who keep their eye upon heaven as their end, will keep their feet in the paths or religion as their way, whatever difficulties and discouragements they met with in it.

NONE BETTER.—There is no more wholesome or delicious fruit on earth than the Wild Strawberry, and there is no more effectual remedy for Cholera, Dysentery, Cramps and other summer complaints of infants or adults than Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

If we were to hear a sermon every day in the week, and an angel from heaven were the preacher, yet, if we rested in bare hearing, it would never bring us to heaven.

If you want to be miserable, think about yourself, about what you want, what you like, what respect people ought to pay you, and what people think of you.—Charles Kingsley.

As the deep blue of heaven brightens into stars,

So God's great love shines through in promises,

Which, falling softly through our prison bars

Daze not our eyes, but with their soft light bless.

Ladders of light God sets against the skies,

Upon whose golden rungs we step by step arise,

Until we tread the halls of Paradise.

—A. E. Hamilton.

JAMES PYLE'S PEARL is highly commended by all who have used it for washing or cleansing purposes. It cleanses the fabric without the tedious process of tubbing. Sold by grocers.

THE best thing to give to your enemy is forgiveness; to an opponent, tolerance; to a friend, your heart; to your child, a good example; to a father, deference; to your mother, conduct that will make her proud of you; to yourself, respect; to all men, charity.

To the dutiful child the parent's approval is better than a prize. To the loving wife or husband love returned is better than a fortune. So the Christian has a reward in the assurance of God's love, the peace of conscience and the joy in the Holy Ghost, which by the divine blessing follow his faithfulness.—Sermons for Silent Sabbaths.
