is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sago's Catarrh Romedy, for a case of Chronic Nasai Catarrh which they cannot cure.

Chronic Nasai Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRIH.—Dult heavy headache, obstruction of the next pussages, discharges failing from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, telek, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inlamed; there is ringing in the cars, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scale from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a masai twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of diziness, with mental depression, a backing cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. "housands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians. By its mild, soothing, and healing properties. Or. Sage's Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Henedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head."

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of lihaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nassi catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards susset, my voice would become so hearse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Romedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting,"
Thomas J. Rushing, Esq., 202 Pine Street
St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from entarth for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly nawking
and spitting, and for the last eight month could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Lucitify, I was advised to try Dr. Sago's Catarn Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarth nor manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience estounding results and in permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarris

ELI RODBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co. Pd., 5278: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw D. Sago's Catarrh Remody advertised, and procured a bettle for her, and soon saw that helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."
