

sentence conform strictly to the rules of grammar? but, does it convey the writer's meaning in the best way possible?"

If the nut has been cracked by the editor or by his correspondent will some of our present dominies say where the kernel is, and relieve the mind of a bewildered

SCHOOLMARM.

To the Members of the National Educational Association :

The members of the National Educational Association living in Chicago and vicinity have organized themselves into a reception committee, and cordially invite all members of the Association to visit Chicago in July, 1893, to participate in the proceedings of the World's Educational Congress.

The preparation of a programme for the Congress is assigned to a committee, of which Dr. W. T. Harris, Commissioner of Education, is chairman.

The Executive Committee of the National Educational Association desires to provide for the prompt publishing and distribution of the Proceedings of the World's Educational Congress. The resident members of the Association, therefore, propose to secure suitable boarding-places for all teachers who will become members of the National Educational Association for the year 1893, paying the membership fee of $2.00, which will also entitle them to participate in the World's Educational Congress and to a copy of the Proceedings.

It will be unwise to come to Chicago without previously making arrangements for entertainment. The price for entertainment will vary from $1.50 a day in private houses to $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 a day in boarding-houses and small hotels.

Teachers desiring to avail themselves of this invitation will remit the sum of $2.00, which is the membership fee of the National Educational Association for 1893, with the name, post-office address and a statement of the time when they will visit Chicago, and the amount they are willing to pay per day for entertainment, to J. M. Greenwood, Treasurer of the National Educational Association, Room 72, City Hall, Chicago, Ill.

[This letter is, of course, addressed to all Canadian teachers who intend to be present at the Congress.—ED. E. R.]

The following notes, which we have received from a friend in Lennoxville, cannot fail to be of interest to our readers:—

The regular routine in College and School has gone on during the present session with very little disturbance: hence there is very little to report.

The Corporation of the College met in Quebec, in a room kindly loaned by the Department of Public Instruction, on Thursday, the 2nd of March, the Bishop of Quebec, Vice-President, in the chair. It was reported by the Principal that enough money had been received to complete the Divinity House free of debt. Thus there is now accommodation in the College for forty residents.