

LONDON, August 1.—The Standard this morning has a special despatch from Widin, which says that Hafiz Pasha entered Servia on the 29th July at Gramada. He encountered 4,000 Servians. After four hours fight the Servians fled, leaving many killed. Hafiz Pasha joined Ahmed Pasha at Derbent, on the 30th, where he again attacked the Servians. A great battle occurred, which raged all day. The result is not known.

The Turks under Sulliman Pasha entered Servia near Panderala, where they encountered eight Servian battalions with twelve guns. After a sharp battle the Servians fled, throwing away their guns.

The Turks continue their advance. Sixty Russian officers are expected at Messa to enter the Servian army.

The Standard's Berlin special states that Austria seems determined to annex Bosnia. Count Andrassy admits the necessity of the policy. Russia will object. It is believed that Russia has resolved to be unrepresented at Constantinople.

The Standard's Constantinople telegram says: The issue of paper money is to begin immediately. The measure is regarded with dismay.

The Standard's Vienna despatch says: The abdication of the Sultan is imminent. It is expected that Abdul Hamid will be proclaimed today.

PARIS, Aug. 1.—La Presse says that Greece proposes to address a note to the Powers, expressing fear that she will be unable to resist war with Turkey. The outrage of the Bashi Bazouks contribute to the agitation.

LONDON, July 27.—A despatch from Constantinople to Reuter's Telegraph Company, says:—It is stated that the Government had decided to issue paper currency to the amount of 3,000,000 Turkish pounds.

This over-skirt is quite different from any other, though very simple and graceful; the sash, or panel back effect is produced by the novel way of draping, and though they thus appear as if of a separate part, it is all one thing, and one of the most attractive shapes for making over by any other pattern. It is intended for any kind of goods, and will be a great favorite for wash materials the coming summer. Paris houses are now using it for their model in preparing suits for the spring season.

Price of Pattern with Cloth Model, 50 Cents, Mailed
