

Chairman,—

At the last meeting of the Executive it was decided that the meetings would start at eight o'clock sharp. I know that it is hard to get here at that time, but if possible do so as we wish to close at ten o'clock or as near as possible.

As this concludes the business for the evening I would call upon some gentleman to move an adjournment.

Moved by Mr. Fletcher, seconded by Mr. McLellan that the meeting be adjourned.