

The basal half line and fringes being black with the broad basal stripe would point to this insect being a variety of A. Behrii, as also the black body parts, but the downward curving of the sub-median stripe before reaching posterior angle ally it to Achaia; unlike either of these, it has no yellow along the posterior margin.

Apatela Felina Grote.

Mr. Grote describes this insect in vol. 5, No. 2, page 208, of the Government Survey Bulletins, comparing it with its ally, A. Lepusculina. Having several bred specimens, I make here a few additions to Mr. Grote's description.

The fore wings are distinctly blueish-gray, and the marks are more obliterate than in the usual Lepusculina. The female has scarcely a trace of the sub-terminal line, even in whitish shading; but one male has the sub-terminal line nearly as distinct as in Lepusculina, like that interspace-ally arcuate, but bending inward only about half as far on the second median interspace, and consequently the line is not so far from the outer margin, below this vein as in Lepusculina. The psi mark is less distinct. Reniform obsolete, except a curved mark, part of the inner or basal portion of the annulus. One male has on one wing almost a perfect orbicular but faint. It is elliptical, the long diameter parallel with costa and much narrower than the same in Lepusculina. Hind wings of male white, soiled terminally and along the veins; of female so much soiled as to be gray. The fringes of both wings concolorous, checkered with black.

CANADIAN COLEOPTERA.

The Council of the Entomological Society of Ontario has decided upon rearranging the Society's collection of Coleoptera according to Henshaw's List. This will necessitate the entire reprinting of the "List of Canadian Coleoptera," and as it is desirable that the new list should be as full and as correct as possible, our friends will confer a great favour by forwarding to the Secretary a list of all new names of Canadian beetles that they may have obtained by correct identification. As it is necessary that the list should be placed in the hands of the printers with as little delay as possible, our readers are desired to reply to this request at once. Henshaw's numbers will be printed on the new list, which will be for sale in sets when completed.
