Commercial Summary.

The first mail steamer of the season for Quebec will leave Liverpool on April 16th.

AGENT, Belleville—The co-insurance question was, if we err not, first mooted in the columns of THE JOURNAL OF COMMERCE.

SHERBROOKE will tender the Government $28,000 in settlement of its Municipal Loan Fund indebtedness.

SEVERAL "special notices" are unavoidably crowded out. Advertisers will kindly bear with us for a little while.

The creditors of Wm. Thomson & Co., whole sale crockery and hardware merchants, Toronto, have agreed to accept 60 cents in the dollar.

A. J. McDONALD, boots and shoes, London, Ont., is reported to have assigned; the stock nominally appears to be in excess of the liabilities.

The Joseph Hall Works, at Oshawa, Ont., valued at $33,000, were sold at auction recently for 24½ cents on the dollar, and will probably resume operations shortly.

ITALY is said to be anxious to coin silver again, and unless allowed to recoin $5,000,000 of old Bourbon silver she threatens to leave the Latin monetary union.

The Union Bank of Halifax has decided to ask parliamentary sanction to a reduction of the capital of the Bank to $500,000, the amount paid-up. The subscribed capital is one million dollars, and this would reduce the shareholders liability one-half.
