"Here's to the Cause and the years that have passed!
Here's to the Cause—it will triumph at last!
The End shall illumine the hearts that have braved
All the years and the fears, that the Cause might be saved.

And though what we hoped for, and darkly have groped for Come not in the manner we prayed that it should,
We shall gladly confess it, and the Cause, may God bless it!
Shall find us all worthy who did what we could!"
