

2. Any reference in this Convention to a "Government" or "Governments" shall be construed as including a reference to the European Economic Community (hereinafter referred to as the EEC). Accordingly, any reference in this Convention to "signature" or to the "deposit of instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval" or "an instrument of accession" or to a "declaration of provisional application" by a Government shall, in the case of the EEC, be construed as including signature or declaration of provisional application on behalf of the EEC by its competent authority, and the deposit of the instrument required by the institutional procedures of the EEC to be deposited for the conclusion of an international agreement.

PART II - MAIN PROVISIONS

ARTICLE III

Contributions of members

1. The members of this Convention agree to contribute to developing countries grains as food aid, as defined in Article II, paragraph 1(e), suitable for human consumption and of an acceptable type and quality, or the cash equivalent thereof, in the minimum annual amounts specified in paragraph 3 below.

2. To the maximum extent possible, contributions shall be made by members on a forward planning basis, so that recipient countries may be able to take account, in their development programmes, of the likely flow of food aid they will receive during each year of this Convention. Furthermore, members should, to the extent possible, indicate the amount of their contributions to be made in the form of gifts, and the grant element of any aid which is not in the form of gifts.

3. The minimum annual contribution, in wheat equivalent, of each member towards the achievement of the objective of Article I is as follows:
