

OTHER PROGRAMS AND PUBLICATIONS

There are several other exchange activities tailored specifically for students that are not included in this booklet.

The most frequent requests from students and young workers are for cultural and linguistic programs, including the European au pair movement, volunteer programs and projects in developing countries.

Most of these programs are outlined in a publication entitled What in the World is Going On, published by the Canadian Bureau for International Education. This publication is available at the following address:

220 Laurier Avenue West,
Suite 1100,
Ottawa, Ontario
K1P 5Z9

There is a fee for this publication.

The following publications are frequently requested by young Canadians.
