related to the World Summit on Sustainable EXPECTED OUTCOME The Departments of Foreign Affairs and International Trade will respectively ensure consistency with Canada's other foreign policy and international trade commitments, notably under the FAO International Treaty on Plant Genetic Resources for Food and Agriculture, and the WTO agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property (TRIPs). improved capacity among the peoples of Least Developed Countries to participate in international trade.