SECRETARY OF STATE FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
TO VISIT JAPAN

The Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Right Honourable Joe Clark, will visit Japan from December 18 to 21 as an official guest of the Japanese Minister of Foreign Affairs. During his visit to Tokyo he will have consultations with the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Mr. Shintaro Abe, on a wide range of bilateral, regional and international questions. It is also expected that he will meet the Minister of International Trade and Industry, Mr. Keiijiro Murata, as well as other Japanese Government leaders. In the course of his discussions, Mr. Clark will reaffirm Canada's commitment to the Pacific Region and the growth of our political and economic links with Japan.
