

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Standing Committee on National Health and Welfare wishes to express its appreciation to the individuals and organizations who cooperated with this study of survivors' benefits under the Canada Pension Plan. The Committee is grateful for the contribution of witnesses who appeared at public hearings in Ottawa and to those who submitted written briefs to the Committee.

We wish to thank the officials of the Department of National Health and Welfare who provided information to the Committee about current benefits, proposed benefits and who provided projected costs and other information about potential recommendations for change in survivors' benefits proposed by witnesses or considered by the Committee. Special thanks in this regard are expressed to Nicole Poitras and Richard Vaillancourt.

Special thanks are extended to Neil Young, M.P., who served as an Acting Member throughout the study and whose contribution was greatly appreciated.

The Standing Committee acknowledges the excellent work of Paul D. Rosenbaum of Evalusearch Planning and Evaluation Consultants, Researcher to the Committee, who provided expert research and analysis throughout the study and in the preparation of the Report.

The Committee expresses its appreciation to Patricia Russell, Clerk of the Committee, for excellent service in the management of the administrative aspects of the study.

Finally, the Committee wishes to thank the staff of the Committees Directorate, the Translation Bureau of the Secretary of State, and the other services of the House of Commons which have provided assistance in this study.
