

Borrowing Authority Act

back and remind ourselves of some of the circumstances which have led up to the present serious financial situation.

For the past ten years the government has been engaging in a mad spending spree, with adverse results which are of tremendous consequence, and which call for immediate action.

May I call it six o'clock?

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Turner): It being six o'clock, the House stands adjourned until tomorrow afternoon at 2 p.m.

At 6 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
