

I impressed upon Senator White the value we attached to close liason with the GAZETTE; intimated that the University had not won any notice as far as the editorial columns were concerned, and hoped for better things in the future.

I think the interview cleared the air and I hope that relations will be upon a more friendly basis.

With many thanks for your kindly interest,

I am,

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.