A. E. Morgan Esq.

Principal - McGill University - Montreal -

Dear Sir: I am a Canadian, Scots descent - born Halifax N.S. - not young - a Civil Engineer very familiar with Canada - history and Country - particularly Winnipeg East - An Independent Conservative, Protestant - neither Mason nor Orangeman - Have many English speaking R.C. friends, and respect both them and their religion -

An familiar recent "unpleasantness" McGill Students & those Univ. Montreal re-reception Spanish Delegates here - noted and approved your pronouncements this matter -

I have before me "Gazette" 27th inst. Editorial
"McGill and Current History" - also "Gazette" this date.
The French Press "The McGill Daily's Article" from Le Devoir

I never fail to read your addresses, and may I say Sir that in my opinion Canada is fortunate in having you just where you are -

You can read the French Press of this Province and - in arriving at an understanding of what they are driving at - or rather what their Clergy are driving at - you are not dependent (like the
