Dear Sir:-

I have the honour to inform you that I was present at Macdonald College on October 18th to 20th.
While there I visited the classroom of the Dean and of every member of the staff of the School for Teachers during the lecture periods.

The reception accorded me was excellent, and the spirit of the staff is one of co-operation.

The methods of teaching are modern, and there is a uniformity of philosophy and psychology that is commendable.

Yours truly,

Director of Protestant Education.
