I must inform your Honors, that when I came here last, I faw his Majesty's Frigate the Tryal returning from a Cruize in Bay-Vert, where, upon the 8th of August 122, the had taken a French Sloop called the London, from Canada, La Gras, Master; and having examined his Papers, found that the Business of this Veisel was to carry Ammunition, Provisions, and other Goods to the Indians, who are in a Province belonging to his Majesty; whereupon the Tryal took her, and brought her to this Port, where she was condemned by his Majesty's Court of Admiralty, for having carried on an illicit Trade.

An Extract of a Letter written by M. de la Jonquiere, Governor of Canada, to Governor Cornwallis, of Nova-Scotia ; dated Quebec, April 2, 1750.

THE King my Mafter is already acquainted with the Orders which I have given to the feveral Officers that were fent by me to command the Forts aforefaid; to wit, to allow nobody to fettle near them, and even to oppofe fuch by Force of Arms, as would offer to moleft them, after my Orders were made known to them : However, I fhall give them no Orders to raife any Fortifications, until the Commiffioners, who are undoubtedly nominated, have regulated the true Boundaries of Nova-Scotia, and which are to belong to New-France. Thofe Limits have never been regulated, fince you acknowledge that Commiffioners are nominated for that Purpofe; and that is the very Reafon which engages me to fend Troops to keep the faid Stations, until Matters are adjusted between the two Crowns.

I hope you will ferioufly obferve this Letter which I fend you. You have, no Doubt, acquainted the King your. Mafter, of all that is done; and as you have given me to underftand, that you will do your Duty whilft you are waiting for his Majefty's Orders; I also give you Notice, that I shall not fail to do mine.
