FIGHTING STORY WAR

Have Captured a With a Thousand Killed and Wounded Other Engagement—Serians Surrender.

ADDE, July 2.—(Can. Press.) Headquarters report that the fighting has occurred at Ovlje, where the Bulgarian losses enormous and 4000 Bulgarians entered. In this engagement 2000 men were killed and wounded. According to the best information to be obtained at the Serbian capital, the line extended from Kutchana, and thence to the Gulf of Orfani. The Bulgarians delivered their heaviest blows at Guevghell, where they severed the Greco-Serbian line, and at Istip. They still hold Guevghell, but were driven from Istip eventually with heavy losses towards Ovtchepolje, where the Serbian army was massed. The Serbian supporting forces, coming up in time, met the Bulgarians at Dermak and Petrishno, behind Kutchana, where a fierce fight ensued. The Bulgarians suffered heavily, the Serians capturing an important height near Osigovt, called Retkibukve.

Wounded Left Behind.
Unconfirmed despatches tonight report further heavy fighting in the Istip district, in which the Serians were compelled to abandon their fortified positions at the town of Istip and leave behind their wounded.

Fifty-four officers, including four colonels, were among the killed, while the losses on both sides numbered several thousand.

Altho the war has now raged for 60 hours, the Bulgarian minister and his staff are still here. Telephonic communication between Belgrade and Sofia has ceased.

According to the latest advices from the front, the Bulgarians have been entirely driven off the territory which they occupied when they took the Serians unawares. The Bulgarian right wing has been completely routed. It is asserted that the fighting was the bloodiest in the history of the Balkan wars.

NO BIG VESSELS FOR FIVE YEARS
Will Be Able to Pass Thru Panama Canal on Account of Frequent Landslides.

Special Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World.
LONDON, July 2.—Experts sent to Panama by a leading German steamship line which contemplated big developments when the canal is available, have reported, The World correspondent learns, that in their opinion large ocean-going liners will not be able to pass thru that waterway for another five years at least.

They base this opinion on the frequency of landslides in the Culebra Cut, which have been on such a scale recently that the steam shovels are making no progress in that part of the work. It is probable, the experts admit, that next January, if not sooner, several torpedo boats will be sent thru by the United States Government. Indeed, it is said that the cutting is deep enough now to allow small vessels to go thru, but there apparently is no assurance of permanency.

THIS RESEMBLES HIGHWAY ROBBERY

Was Forced to Pay a Half a Pint for Baby.
Two dollars a pint for milk would indicate that the cost of living is certainly "up." Yet at Long Branch on the holiday, when a woman tried to get half a pint of milk for a baby, the proprietor of the place to which she applied, advised her he would sell her half a pint for a dollar. As there was no other place to get any, she submitted and paid a dollar for a half pint.

NO CHANGE NOW OF STOPPING IT

Balkan War Will Be Continued and Official Notice of Resumption Will Be Given.

LONDON, July 2.—(Can. Press.) Any remaining hope of averting a Balkan war is rapidly disappearing. Bulgaria has sent warning notes to Serbia and Greece, demanding a cessation of all aggressive movements within twenty-four hours. These notes are regarded as tantamount to an ultimatum.

A Belgrade despatch, via Paris, tonight, announces that the King of Serbia is presiding at a council which is expected to decide to declare war on Bulgaria.

Greece in notes to Bulgaria and the powers, justifying her action, accuses Bulgaria of treacherously attacking the Greeks and Serians, in order to seize important territories and so place herself in an advantageous position in the coming negotiations for a settlement of the Balkan differences.

In the meantime, fighting continues, according to Serbian advices, on a heavy scale, and the King of Greece with his staff has left Saloniki for the front, to direct the operations personally.

The representatives of the powers at all the Balkan capitals, are urgently pressing the respective governments not to allow unfavorable occurrences to drag them into war.

SERIOUS ISSUES BEFORE RULERS
King of Italy and German Emperor to Confer on the Balkan Crisis.

BERLIN, July 2.—(Can. Press.)—The King and Queen of Italy entered Germany today, on their way to Kiel, where they are to meet the German Emperor and Empress tomorrow.

Imperial Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg, and Foreign Minister Von Jagow, departed from Berlin this morning for Kiel, to participate in the royal and imperial meeting, which, according to an official announcement, is to have merely the character of a visit of courtesy and to carry no political significance with it beyond demonstrating the friendliness of the two monarchs and of the two nations.

It is generally assumed, however, that the change in the European political and military situation caused by developments in the Balkans will be the subject of discussion between the monarchs and their ministers.

DUFRESNE GIVEN DISCHARGE AT SHERBROOKE

Owing, It Was Explained, to Absence of Important Witness, Case Against Man Accused of Sending Fatal Bomb Was Greatly Weakened—Typewriter No Clue.

SHERBROOKE, Que., July 2.—(Can. Press.)—L. A. Dufresne, the civil engineer, arrested on a charge of sending thru the mails an infernal machine which killed Mrs. Boldeau, was discharged by Judge Mulvena this afternoon.

N. K. Lafamme, counsel for the prisoner, contended strongly that the charge against Dufresne was too weak to warrant his being sent up for trial. Crown Prosecutor Nichol said he could strengthen his case if he could find Solomon Ouellette, a witness who had mysteriously disappeared.

Judge Mulvena decided to hear all the crown's case and asked Mr. Nichol to explain what evidence he had produced which was strong enough to justify a committal.

Testimony was submitted going to show that the typewriting on pieces of a letter found in the Boldeau house after the explosion was similar in some respects to the work done by a machine found in the home of Dufresne. Two witnesses who gave this evidence would not swear that Dufresne's machine had written the portion of the letter found in the Boldeau house and acknowledged that there were ten thousand similar machines in Canada.

JOHNSON MAY FORFEIT BOND
District Attorney Hopes to Enrich State Coffers by Thirty Thousand Dollars.

CHICAGO, July 2.—(Can. Press.)—United States District Attorney Wilkerson entered a motion in the federal court today asking that the personal bond for $30,000 given by Jack Johnson, negro prize fighter, on eleven indictments under the Mann White Slave Act for which he has not yet been tried, be forfeited. Arguments on the motion will be heard tomorrow afternoon.

Bonds for $15,000 are also pending against Johnson. These were signed by Matthew Baldwin, a real estate dealer, when the negro was granted permission to carry his case to the United States circuit court of appeals.

In the bonds given in the untried indictments, there is a provision that the negro must not leave the jurisdiction of the district court of northern Illinois. It is because of this provision that Mr. Wilkerson has asked that the bonds be forfeited.

These indictments charge that Johnson paid for the transportation of Belle Schreiber between Milwaukee and Chicago Christmas week, 1910. Johnson now is on a ship bound for Europe.

Construction work on the new postoffice is expected to commence next spring.

It is supposed that Britt fell and struck his head on the curbing. Constable Finch (87) happened along and rendered first aid. Dr. Higgins, 106 Dovercourt road, was passing and removed Britt to the Western Hospital in his motor car. He may not recover.

WEALTHY WIDOW WEDS A PRINCE
Mrs. Joseph Stickney and Ten Millions Married to Prince With Unpronounceable Name.

Special Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World.
LONDON, July 2.—Mrs. Joseph Stickney of New York and Prince Aymon de Faucigny-Lucigne were married quite privately today in Lady Chapel at the Catholic Cathedral in Westminster. The World correspondent was the only person present outside the very small and select party invited.

The bride is the widow of Jos. Stickney, who at the time of his death in New York, ten years ago, was one of the wealthiest men in the coal trade of America. The bulk of his $10,000,000 he left to his widow, who was Miss Carolyn Foster of Waltham, Mass., and many years his junior.

After his death she came to Europe, where she has spent most of her time since, being a prominent figure in the social life of London.

The bridegroom, a cousin of the present head of the historic house of Faucigny-Lucigne and Count of Savoy (which dates its ennoblement from the tenth century), is also a familiar figure in society in Paris, New York and London. He is 51 years old and long considered the handsomest man in Paris.

The latest gossip is that the duke has accepted another year in order to be in Canada when the Prince of Wales makes a visit next summer.

KINGSTON, July 2.—(Special.)—Anthony Hewlo, an Italian, aged 24, a prisoner serving ten years in Portsmouth penitentiary for a crime of which he claimed to be innocent, died in Hotel Dieu of tuberculosis. Hewlo was released from prison two weeks ago and removed to the city hospital. Of the ten-year sentence he has about completed three years. He was sentenced in Toronto for shooting at a brakesman on a train on which he had been stealing a ride. When dying he said that he did not shoot at the man, but

HAD MANY ROLES IN DECEIVING FINANCIERS

David Lamar, New York, Stock Speculator, Impersonated Various Public Men and Others in Playing Shrewd Game in Wall Street.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—(Can. Press.)—A story of misrepresentation, impersonation of public men, and organized effort to influence Wall street financiers, probably without parallel in the history of congressional investigation, was unfolded today before the senate lobby committee.

A prosperous looking, self-possessed individual, calling himself David Lamar of New York, self-described as an "operator in stocks," and admittedly the bearer of several assumed names, was the principal in the remarkable session. With an entire abandon, arousing the committee to laughter at times by his naive admissions, he told of his impersonations, his participation in attempts to influence Wall street operations, and his association with Edward Lauterbach, a New York lawyer, in efforts to have Lauterbach retained by the Morgan firm, the Union Pacific and other great interests to head off congressional activity in Washington.

RAILWAY DEFIES COURT DECISION
Chicago and Great Western Refuses to Refund Excess Charges to Shippers.

ST. PAUL, July 2.—(Can. Press.)—The Chicago Great Western Railway refused to comply with the decision of the United States supreme court, involving the Great Northern and Northern Pacific and will not pay refunds on excess charges during the period of rate litigation. The amount involved is approximately $300,000.

The announcement of the intention of the company was made today, by A. G. Briggs, attorney for the company, who declared the belief that as the supreme court had termed the rates confiscatory in regard to the Minneapolis and St. Paul, the same should apply to the Chicago Great Western.

ANGRY CROWD ATTACKS POLICE
Three Hamilton Officers Have Lively Time Getting Man—One Constable a Badly Battered.

HAMILTON, July 2.—(Staff Correspondent.)—Agatha Lisonnie, a Roumanian, 178 North Sherman street, and Walter Hulman, 35 Earl street, were arrested on serious charges about 7 o'clock tonight.

M. Hayes, proprietor of the International Hotel, appealed to the police to arrest a foreigner by name Lisonnie, who was causing a disturbance in his hotel. P. C. Renard and Gravelle went with him to the corner of Baron and James streets. When the attempted to arrest the man it is said that he put up a strenuous fight. P. C. Gravelle grappled with him, and after some time got the best of him, not without injury to himself and to the prisoner, however. The policeman was forced to grab him by the throat and shut off his wind before he would stop kicking, and as a result the prisoner had first to be taken to the city hospital for repairs, and thence to the police station.

While Gravelle was handling Lisonnie, P.C.'s McNair and Venard had their hands full keeping off the crowd, some of whom were very hostile in their attitude towards the police. McNair was pretty badly battered up before he succeeded in arresting Walter Hulman, someone in the crowd striking him over the head and neck while he was wrestling with his man. When the men were finally taken to the station, the foreigner was charged by P.C. Gravelle with resisting arrest, while Hulman will face a charge of interference with and assaulting the police in the discharge of their duty.

It is reported that one man in the crowd tried to incite the spectators to attack the police. The police know his name and address, and it is possible that a warrant will be sworn out for his arrest.

This same man said that he intended circulating a petition to have P. C. Gravelle dismissed from the force. It seemed, however, to be the prevalent opinion among the spectators that not only Gravelle, but McNair and Venard, are deserving of credit for the patience which they displayed under abuse.

For the coal company the month's output was 294,386 tons, 3000 tons better than the output of June, 1912. The output for the last six days broke all previous records by 2000 tons, and on the 27th the daily record was broken with a hoist of 18,120 tons.

WASHERMAN'S HOT WATER
Washer with 10 tubs, built-in refrigerator, side drive, garage.
TANNER & GATES, Realty Brokers, Tanner-Gates Bldg., 26-28 Adelaide St. W. Main 3822.

He telephoned to financial men and lawyers in the names of Representative Palmer and Representative Rorand. He assumed the guise of Chairman McCombs, of the Democratic national committee to telephone to Chairman Hill of the Republican national committee.

Lewis Cass Ladyard of New York, counsel for the Morgan firm, was one of his attempted victims. Mr. Ladyard came to the witness stand today armed with almost a verbatim account of all the conversations held with Lamar, who had represented himself as Congressman Palmer. As he read the record of conversations, unusual in their tone, Lamar sitting nearby laughed and nodded, saying, "That's right," and slapping his legs with apparent enjoyment.

The purpose of his impersonations, Lamar contended, was to secure reinstatement for his friend, Edward Lauterbach, in the good graces of the Morgan firm.

Members of the committee tonight demanded that Lamar remain in Washington for reappearance tomorrow. Edward Lauterbach, who recently testified before the committee, was recalled from New York by telegraph tonight, and Henry B. Martin, a local man who has figured as head of the "anti-trust league," was also subpoenaed to appear.

A Hot Denial.
Paul D. Cravath, one of the attorneys for the Union Pacific, and Maxwell Everts, counsel for the Southern Pacific, testified briefly as to their experiences with the telephone impersonator. During his testimony early in the day Lamar interjected an attack upon the Union Pacific, claiming there had been a falsification in the books of the company in 1909 by which nearly $80,000,000 had disappeared from its surplus.

Mr. Cravath immediately denied this, (terming Lamar a "liar," a characterization which the committee insisted should be attacked.) Cravath declared the attack had been expected for several days, as a part of a bear raid to depress the value of the stock for speculative purposes.

While Lamar was on the stand Chairman Overman endeavored to make him give his real name, but the witness refused. He admitted under Overman's questioning that he had been in Denver under the name of David H. Lewis, but denied he had used the name of Simon Wolfe. He said Lamar was not his name, but declined to give the committee further information.
