LAND (wife of the sd. JACOB DORLAND), and ANN —, ch. of my Brother ANRAM DORLAND, decd." Sole exr., Nathaniel Boileau. Signed her name "EVE BRITTIN." Wit. Anne Stevens, Margaret Vanartsdale, and Elizth. Bours. (Will Book X, 694: Phila.)

*Only son of Nathaniel and Elizabeth Brittain, of Byberry Twp., Phila. Co. Will of JOHN BRITTIN, dated Apr. 25, 1791 and prob. Oct. 7, 1795. Legatees: "My faithful and beloved wife EVE BRITTIN," dwelling house and lands; negro man William is given his freedom; nephew, Nathaniel Billew, an 8-day clock, also land on east side of the road leading from Smithfield to Newtown; Presb. Ch. of Abington Twp., £10 towards a new meeting house. The remainder of his estate to JOHN DORLAND, LAMBERT DORLAND, Nathaniel Vansandt, Rebecca Billew, ANN Folwell, Sarah Wilson, and RACHEL BARNES. Sole exr., Nathaniel Billew.

†The "widow and ch. of ABRAHAM DORLAND, late private of the Ninth Regiment, deceased," are referred to in the Minutes of the Provincial Council, Phila., Apr. 16, 1785, the Comptroller reporting to the Council that £3-18-6 was due them on that date, evidently by reason of ABRAHAM's military service. From this reference it appears that ABRAHAM was then dead. See Colonial Records, xiv, 408.
