JOHN W. WEBB,

Dealer at Wholesale and Retail in

Drugs, Medicines, Dispensaries, &c.,

Has two Shops; one at the

FOOT OF THE ROUND CHURCH HILL, UPPER WATER STREET,

The other at the

CORNER OF BEDFORD ROW AND SACKVILLE STREET, near the Country Market; at either of which he is prepared to furnish all articles in his line, of the best quality, and at the LOWEST MARKET RATES.

JOHN BOWES,

BOOKBINDER,

Thankful for the very liberal patronage bestowed on him, respectfully intimates that he has lately imported some of the most improved machinery for expediting the operation of Binding, among which he has obtained

MALLORY'S CELEBRATED CUTTING MACHINE,

surpassing all others in its rapidity of operation. He has also received, by late importation, elegant English Calf and Morocco, for fancy and other bindings, which, with the assistance of superior workmen, he trusts will enable him to give every satisfaction to those who favor him with their custom. BLANK BOOKS ruled and bound to any pattern, agreeably to the English method.
