

C.

General HULL'S Invading PROCLAMATION.

INHABITANTS OF CANADA !

After thirty years of peace and prosperity the United States have been driven to arms. The injuries and aggravations, the insults and indignities of Great-Britain, have once more left them no alternative but manly resistance or unconditional submission.

The army under my command, has invaded your country, and the standard of Union now waves over the Territory of Canada. To the peaceable unoffending inhabitant, it brings neither danger nor difficulty. I come to find enemies not to make them. I come to protect, not to injure you.

Separated by an immense Ocean, and an extensive Wilderness from Great-Britain, you have no participation in her councils, nor in her conduct. You have felt her tyranny, you have seen her injustice, but I do not ask you to avenge the one or redress the other. The United States are sufficiently powerful to afford you every security, consistent with their rights, and your expectations. I tender you the invaluable blessings of Civil, Political, and Religious Liberty, and their necessary result, individual and general prosperity—that Liberty which gave decision to our councils and energy to our conduct in our struggle for independence, and which conducted us safely and triumphantly through the stormy period of the Revolution. That Liberty which has raised us to an elevated rank

among
ed us
Wealth
any pe

In the
my Gov
propert
your pe
your ha
thers fo
enjoy.
with us,
an army
dial wel
and opp
free me

Had
your as every co
all oppo
much gr
the just dered an
ties of w

If the
be pursu
citizens,
will be a

The fi
with the