James Marshall is the Name He's Traveling Under.

A peculiar case will confront the magistrate this morning when 12-year-old James Marshall comes before him, charged with vagrancy. The boy was brought into Court-street police station yesterday by an older chap, who roams on York-street. The older one said that young Marshall had been turned over into his custody two days ago by another boy who left the city. The story he got of the Marshall lad was that his home was at 92 Humboldt-avenue, from which he had decamped because he was being beaten. The West Toronto police were instructed to enquire and reported that no such boy lived at that address.

BRUCHESI ON MASONRY

Duty of All Good Catholics to Be Ever on the Alert.

MONTREAL, Oct. 30.—(Special.)—His Grace the Archbishop of Montreal addressed the faithful to-day on the question of Free Masonry amongst the French-Canadians, and also asked the newspapers, both English and French, to abstain from publishing such scandalous details concerning the Michaud case, now before the police court.

Mgr. says that the newspapermen gathered some time ago at his table and said they would be very happy to work hand in hand with him in the duty of all good Catholics, and new he asked them to help him.

Speaking of masonry, his grace said that, unfortunately, there were hundreds of members in the Brotherhood of the Scotch rite. They had agents, he said, on every hand, and were getting adepts and victims in the town and country, so it was the duty of all good Catholics to be ever on the alert.

He crossed the frontier alone, disguised as a milk-cart driver.

WEST TORONTO.

WEST TORONTO, Oct. 30.—Richard Jolly, the young Englishman who died of typhoid on Friday last, was buried yesterday in Prospect Cemetery. A short time ago he joined the Sons of England, Worcester Lodge No. 47. Altho he was not yet entitled to any of the rights of membership, his fellow-members took complete charge of the funeral.

The services in memory of all railwaymen who have died during the year, which were held to-day in Victoria Presbyterian Church, were largely attended. The B. L. F. and E. marched from their hall to the church behind the Salvation Army band, 150 turning out. The service was entirely undenominational, all the ministers of West Toronto being present.
