COUNTY AND SUBURBAN

Toronto Junction, March 6.—(Special.)—The funeral of Miss Helen Curran, daughter of Thomas Curran, 66 McMurray-avenue, was largely attended this afternoon. The funeral took place to St. Michael's Cemetery.

Mr. Moody, sergeant-major of the Toronto Battalion of the Boys' Brigade, inspected the company known as St. John's, and pronounced himself well pleased with their training and good behavior.

The Liberal Club and Mr. Hill.

The Toronto Junction Liberal Club met at their rooms in the Campbell Block Saturday evening. Mr. A. B. Rice, president of the club, occupied the chair, and the room was crowded to its utmost capacity. Mr. W. J. Hill, the newly-elected member for the riding, thanked the members of the club for their support in the late campaign, and expressed his lasting obligations to them for the interest manifested in his election. Mr. H. E. Irwin of Weston and Mr. John Sheppard also addressed the meeting, which was enthusiastic throughout. The question of a recount and protest was discussed, and all were of the firm opinion that a re-count would not take from Mr. Hill's majority, that perfect confidence in their candidate's election was assured, and should the constituency be opened again, a still larger majority would be rolled up for Mr. Hill.

North Toronto.

The regular monthly meeting of York Township Council will be held to-day at the Town Hall, and as no special meeting has been held this month a long session may be looked for.

Missionary services were held yesterday at the Davisville Methodist Church. Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick occupied the pulpit.

Rev. R. J. Moore of St. Margaret's Church preached at St. Clement's Church, Eglinton, last night.

A sleigh belonging to Mr. A. Pugsley was struck by an electric car at Davisville and considerably damaged.

The Sunday school scholars and teachers of St. Clement's, Eglinton, were treated to a sleigh ride on Saturday afternoon.

The proceeds of the recent concert in aid of the Sick Children's Hospital will net in the neighborhood of $25.

Mr. E. Lawrence, son of Chief Lawrence, now engaged on the Metropolitan cars, intends leaving for the Northwest about the 15th inst.

York County News.

A large hydraulic pump is being placed in the Richmond Hill tannery.

Newmarket Public School Board is being supplied with wood from the northern country, which is laid down at the school house at $3.87 per cord.

Prof. West of Toronto yesterday addressed the Gospel Temperance meeting at Newmarket with special reference to the work of the late Miss Frances Willard.

The reeve and clerk of Georgina Township have signed a petition to the Dominion Government praying that the Trent Valley Canal be completed to Lake Simcoe.

The team of Mr. D. Earl of Keswick were nearly drowned by breaking through the ice on the Jersey River.

Rev. C. O. Johnson lectures at Queensville to-morrow evening.

Mr. T. P. King, who has secured a lucrative position in Ottawa, has sent in his resignation to the school trustees at Holland Landing.

Mr. J. Glover's favorite dog is dead. It, with others was chasing a fox near College Corners, when three enthusiastic hunters mistook him for Reynard and filled him with lead.

Diphtheria is epidemic in the northern part of the county, and the revival services at Mount Pleasant have been stopped in consequence.

Mrs. Ramsden of Kettleby has been presented with a handsome hanging lamp by the congregation of King Christian Church.

The insurance rates in Newmarket have been raised. Between $4000 and $5000 was paid in insurance premiums last year. In consequence of fire $66 was returned.

March 31 is the last day for municipal councils to pass by-laws limiting the number of liquor licenses for the ensuing year.

WOMEN'S TESTIMONY.

What the Missionaries of the W. C. T. U. Said at the Pavilion Yesterday Afternoon.

The all-the-world-around missionaries of the W.C.T.U., Misses Vincent and Cummings, of Australia, spoke under the auspices of the Canadian Temperance League in the Pavilion yesterday afternoon.

Mr. J. L. Hughes occupied the chair, and the following were on the platform: Mrs. Ardill (from Australia), Mrs. Moffatt, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. J. S. Robertson, Mrs. Forster, Mrs. Vance, Mrs. George Wrigley, Mrs. Hillborn and Mrs. Lytle, Revs. C. O. Johnston, Thomas Fox. Mr. Oakley and J. W. Graham, J. S. Robertson, president of the league; James Forster, George B. Sweetnam, Murdoch Macdonald, C. H. Wisker, H. Foster, A. E. Parker, R. S. Sheilstone and others.

Miss Cummings warned the fathers and mothers present not to touch liquor, for the sake of their little ones, as the habit had a terrible influence upon the child life of the country.

Miss Vincent spoke of how she had been reared on the banks of the Avon in England, beside the river where Shakespeare had penned some of his most brilliant pieces; how her father and mother had wetted her baby lips with wine, which had in after years caused her to have an intense desire for strong drink. She spoke of emigrating to Australia, and being saved there through the influence of the Salvation Army.

A Great Musical Treat.

Monday evening next will no doubt see a very large audience in Massey Hall, the occasion being a grand concert given by two of the world's greatest artists, in the persons of Ysaye, the wonderful violinist, and Mdlle. Antoinette Trebelli, the renowned and brilliant soprano. This concert will be equally as successful and artistically splendid as were the first two events of the course by the Massey Hall management, viz., those given by Nordica and Plancon. World readers will remember that they were strongly advised to hear Plancon, because he was not then known in Toronto as he is to-day, and they are again as strongly advised, for the same reason, not to miss the opportunity of listening to two more artists of the first rank. Trebelli sang here last October, and those who had the good fortune to hear her were completely charmed by her voice and art. Ysaye played in Boston on the 17th of last month, and The Journal of that city spoke of his playing as follows: "Mr. Ysaye played in wondrous fashion. The adagio was indeed celestial music. There was reverie, there was pathos, there was the aspiration of the soul. Mr. Ysaye was recalled and recalled again." The sale of seats opens at the box office to-morrow.

Some Things Mr. Rowe Said.

Rev. Elliott S. Rowe preached an able sermon yesterday morning from the text, "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." In the course of his address he said:

It is beneath the dignity of a man to be influenced by anything else than the truth. Man is a power not a thing; a power may, a thing must. To be flotsam and jetsom on the tide of life is not godlike; it is not manlike. It is thing-like.

The highest function of a fully acting human will is to make the choice to do the will of God.

God might put you in fifty million heavens and you would spoil every one of them if there were not essential heaven in your heart.

You say, "We are not good enough to sit at the table of the Lord," when it is a question if you are good enough to sit at your own table.

The fatherly impulses which prompt a man are not foreign to the heart of God.

God has never made a more sacred thing than you yourself are.

Thanks to Their Excellencies.

The address of thanks which is to be presented to their Excellencies the Governor-General and the Countess of Aberdeen from the 90 societies and institutions visited by them during their recent stay in Toronto will be placed in the Ladies' Work Depository on King-street east, opposite Murray's, to-morrow for the signature of the presidents of the aforesaid associations, who are requested to call and attach their names to the pages as soon as possible.

TRINITY METHODIST CHURCH.

The Treasurer's Second Report Respecting the Special Fund.

To the members and adherents of Trinity Methodist Church:

During the past week I have received further cash payments amounting to $4,206 from subscribers by card and from new contributors as per list herewith. These receipts have enabled me to pay off balance of the liabilities of the church past due as shown by the audited statement of Dec. 31, 1897, also the interest on church mortgage due the Star Life Company to the 15th day of Jan. last.

The total amount of cash received for the "Special Fund" to liquidate the floating indebtedness, and to reduce the mortgage debt is $17,901 03

Rebates received from the Imperial and Traders Banks on notes paid in advance 88 85

Total receipts $17,989 88

The disbursements are as follows:

Paid note due Imperial Bank	$13,000 00
Paid note due Traders Bank	1,509 05
Paid note due Mr. Wright	1,468 88
Paid Elias Rogers & Co., account	178 50
Paid W. McGill & Co. account	100 00
Paid Star Life, interest on mortgage to Jan. 15, 1898	1,634 49
Total payments		$17,890 92
Balance on hand ..		$98 96

The total subscription list to date, including both cash and promises, is $20,372 78

Of this there has been paid 17,901 03

Balance, being promises to be paid on and after April 1 next $2,471 75

It is proposed to use the balance of these subscriptions, when paid, in the reduction of the mortgage debt. This will doubtless prove satisfactory and meet the views of all parties concerned.

Subscribers to the "Special Fund" who have not received a copy of the first report, and who desire one, will be furnished with the same on application.

Further payments received on account of subscriptions will be duly acknowledged during the second week in April.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. Housser, Treasurer "Special Fund."

SPRING GLOVES.
The hand feels quickly the discomfort of a heavy glove when the warm weather sets in. Expect to find all the newest and choicest lines in fine French Kid Gloves at the Big Store. A number of specials that you ought to see.

SECOND TO NONE.

THE SIMPSON STORE stands out in a new light. With new men at the helm and new ideas underway it promises a big development. It hardly needs a magnifying glass to see that things are changing here. We intend that the business shall challenge criticism and be the focus for all eyes all over Canada.

If we had merely an ordinary store, no better than others you know of, we would say less about it. But either we're talking for the sake of talking or else we're sincere in what we say. In any event you'll find us out, and above everything else we want to be known for what we are and what we do.

Millett's "Angelus" is painted in oil colors; so is your front fence. The difference between them is sometimes the difference between stores. Part of our policy is to see that this business is on the right side of any and every comparison.

ELEGANT NEW WASH FABRICS.

Cases and cases of new goods have arrived and there is a magnificent assortment of Delaines, Organdies and Printed Swiss effects. We draw special attention to the item of Delaines. Violet Club's Bazaar.

Saturday afternoon was unusually bright in Confederation Life Building, where the Violet Club held another of their successful bazaars, Mr. S. H. Brush presided, and believes that there will be a snug little sum realized. The booths and tables were tastefully decorated, and over the fancy department presided the Misses Nora Hamilton, Mabel Lennox, Marjorie Murray and Ethel Hudgens. Refreshments were served by the Misses Madeline Carter, Kathleen Snow, Irene Carrack and Corrine Dingman. Behind the flour stand were Olive Brush and Ilma Rose, and with the candies were Helen and Charlotte Stout. The club wish, through The World, to thank the Confederation Life, who kindly loaned them the room for the afternoon, without charge.

Two car loads of horses were shipped from Newmarket on Saturday.
