

HORSE SALES AT NEW YORK

Crow & Murray's High Stepper
Blucher Brings $2800.

Only $2200 for Sampson and Sigbee —Bratton's Prize Winner Brings Fair Prices—Racing Summary for the Day.

New York, Nov. 22.—Thomas W. Law-son of Boston purchased yesterday from Crow & Murray of Toronto the crack high-stepper Blucher, that was placed second in the O. H. P. Belmont's Uncle Sam in the cham- pion race at the Horse Show last week. The price paid was $2800.

The sale of John S. Bratton's prize-win- ning high-stepper attracted a large crowd to the American Horse Exchange yesterday morning, but the prices realized for the animals offered were only fair. Sampson and Sigbee, the champion carriage pair of the recent Horse Show, brought only $2200. Joseph E. Widener of Philadelphia being the buyer.

Bratton stated that the two horses had won upward of $7000 in the show ring within two years, and he was disappointed at the price for which they were sold. Miles and Blucher, the big brown horses that are driven as wheelers in a four-hand team with Sampson and Sigbee as leaders, were sold to W. M. Marshall of Chicago for $1900. George Watson and J. H. Wilson of England were among the largest buyers.

President Bayly of the Canadian Rugby Union yesterday received the following telegram from Ottawa College: "Ottawa College will meet Ottawa City in Ottawa on Thursday Day, extraordinary grounds.
We suggest Lansdowne Park. We will accept for officials Fitzgibbon, Ballantyne

Secretary Fitzgibbon is in Ottawa making arrangements for the game, which now looks like a certainty.

Ottawa Says It Was Rough.
Rough! Rather. Not on the Sunday school side. If the Ottawa boys had played the game which the young gentlemen of the Intercollegiate League team to favour, the Quebec Rugby Union might be praying for the amendment to the Criminal Code to ban the Rough Riders.

There were 15 stops in the match for injured players. Twelve were on account of vicious tackles, one was on account of a Varsity player.

Some of the Varsity men, particularly Halfback Hille, liberally used knee on anything else to stop Ottawa runners. Hille showed the most savage play the Ottawa boys have run up against this year. The Varsity forwards, when charging outside, after a free kick, made a point of getting full speed with the shoulder into the Ottawa men, looking up to catch the ball.
This was legal, but there are two ways of doing it. One is to simply spit the opponent's catch. The other is to hit him as hard as you can. Varsity did the latter.

The Rough Riders took it like heroes.
They had to grin and bear it. If Varsity had tried to do this to a Varsity player last year, half the Varsity men would have been in ambulances. The gril-lar the Ottawa have got in the press has left them pretty sore just now for rough tactics by any other team.

Buckham was struck at by a Varsity man Saturday and turned away without a sign. Purford stepped in between one of his partners and a Varsity man who was getting ugly. Cameron's stomach got the benefit of repeated charges from a Varsity head until he gently notified his opponent to quit or look out for himself. And so on.

The Rough Riders played a clean, square game without a sign of temper, under a pile of provocation. And so on.

Varsity went home from Kingston the previous Saturday complaining about Queen's rough play. If Queen's men are worse than Varsity, the middle should be after them with Lee-Suffield rifles.

Prof. London of Varsity wrote to The Journal last week to plead for fair play for his lambs. Like some mothers, the professor doesn't seem to know what the boys do when they are out-Ottawa Journal.
