A PETROLEA PRISONER.

Charged With Embezzlement. Windsor, Ont., Aug. 13.—Detective Mahoney arrived in Windsor last night, having in custody Samuel F. Harkness, who is wanted in Petrolea on a charge of embezzlement. Harkness was brought from Toledo, where he had sought refuge from Candian law, refusing to come back without extradition. He will be detained here until a Petrolea officer comes for him.

THEIR FIRST CHURCH PARADE.

The Loyal Orange Young Briton
Association Celebrated the Relief of Derry Yesterday.

For the first time in Toronto, the Loyal Orange Young Briton Association celebrated the anniversary of the Relief of Derry yesterday afternoon by a church parade. It was the 211th anniversary of this famous siruggle, and it was a huge success, doing great credit to the juvenile Orangenen of the city. The weather was all that could be desired, and in time with stirring music,
over 200 young men walked to Agnew-street Methodist Church.

important matter to bring before the Board. This was that the J. D. King Company of Point Levis, Quebec, had decided to remove to Toronto and establish their large factory in this city provided that satisfactory arrangements be made with the City Council. The Board, in private, conferred with the Assessment Commissioner. It is believed a satisfactory arrangement can be made. The firm ask a fixed assessment for ten years, and promise to employ from 300 to 500 men.

Purchase of Rubber Fire Hose.
Chief Graham of the Fire Department recommended the purchase of 3000 feet of Paragon fire hose from the Gutta Percha Rubber Company, at 85 cents per foot. Controller Burns thought the hose should be tested before the contract was awarded. Action was deferred pending a conference with the representative of the other tenderer, who had requested to withdraw like fooder.

at the corner of King and Ontario-street and about the same time some one broke it to J. R. Lee's drug store at 407 East King street. In both cases the articles stole were postage stamps and other trifles. Several persons saw a man run awa from the McLaughlin store about 5 o'clock; and thinking he was a burglar they took good look at him. A description was furnished to Acting Detective Forrest of N 4 station, and in a few hours he had two men in the cells charged with the offene. The prisoners are George Walker of 22 East Front-street and Steve Doyle, who have particular place of abode. The latter man was found hiding behind a pile of stones on the waterfront.

sion Reported Was Not Much Evidence of Prosperity.

London, Aug. 13.-The Board of Trade returns for July have been received with 573 Queen Street West, chastened satisfaction. While the totals 1352 Queen Street West. indicate considerable progress, an analysis 202 Wellesley Street, shows that the imports have not been 306 Queen Street East, swollen by raw material of manufactures, 415 Spadina Avenue. and a large percentage of the improving ex- Esplanade Street, near Be irreplaceable commodities, and machinery which go to swell the manufacturing en which go to swell the manufacturing enterprise of their rivals. In short, it is useless to blink at the fact that the tendency is persistently against British commercial progress. The home market is more flooded with foreign wares, while the exports are about the same as they were a decade ago. The newspapers are comparing the situation with the bounding propress of the United States, and are using it as a text against "the inanities and fallacies of the one-sided free trade system beloved of Cobdenites."

The report of the Secretary of State for the Colonies on Barbadoes shows that the trade of that island has decreased with Great Britain during the past year £22,000, while it has increased with other countries upward of £74,000. The Secretary attributes this state of affairs to the increasing tendency to get all supplies from the United States, while more than half the exports of Barbadoes go to the United States. nercial progress. The home market is Suckling & Co. announce to the trade that they will open the fall season's sales on Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 30 and 31. Mr. Suckling has just returned from England, where he has made arrangements with a number of manufacturers and others for the disposal of large quantities of their goods by means of these sales to the trade. At the first sale the British goods will be offered; these will be catalogued, with full descriptions of the different goods. Such staple lines as velveteens, dress goods, worsteds, woollens, mercerised sateens, Italians, silks, etc., direct from the manufacturers. Catalogues will be ready about the 22nd inst., and will be mailed on application. This will really be the best offering of drygoods ever made in this way to the trade of Canada.

Every Success has Its Imitators.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt is a success. Successful in preventing diseases and in curing diseases already developed. Successful in gaining, on its own merits, the endorsations of the leading physicians and medical journals of Great Britain and Canada.

That is why a palpable imitation of Abbey's Effervescent Salt has been placed on the market. The perpetrators of this insult to the intelligence of the public are printers of London, Ontario. Their object was to seproduce as nearly as possible the package used to contain Abbey's Effervescent Salt. The cheap and nasty powder which their package contained did not even have the good point of being palatable. The High Court of Justice has issued an injunction against its proprietors, and its sale has been stopped, but still that when buying Abbey's Effervescent Salt to be sure they get it. Shakespeare's head on the package stamps it genuine. Look for it. There is no effervescent salt but Abbey's Effervescent Salt.

AVOID SUBSTITUTION.

(From the Canadian Druggist.) There are forms of substitution which are quite as reprehensible as a deliberate giving of something else for the preparation ordered-and one of the latest of these has just come under our notice. Abbey's Effervescent Salt is recognized by the physician and public alike as a valuable remedy. Its sale has been almost phenomenal-a fact which is due to its real medicinal virtue. Recognizing this fact, a package has appeared on the market almost similar in appearance, size and style of bottle and package, and with a label as closely imitating it as possible, intended, without doubt, to deceive the public. It has unfortunately been purchased by some druggists, possibly without considering the evident intention of the makers, and also the loss of custom which must inevitably follow if an attempt is made to
