AGAINST THEY RAN IN THE MUD

Only the Regulars in Attendance on Third Day of Hunt Club's Fall Meeting.

Three favorites in finish in front of the regulars in the third day of the Hunt Club's Fall Meeting.

Three favorites, Donald Dinnie, 3 to 5;
Lamp Globe, 2 to 1, and Elia, 7 to 5;
the second choice, Ray Salazar, 8 to 1; and the third choice, Last Fellow, 7 to 1, and Annie Lauretta, 7 to 1, landed the purses in the races.

All Monday night and all day yesterday
it simply poured, and the rain cut down the attendance at the third day's races of the Country and Hunt Club to the regulars.

The track was a sea of mud, and the horses in the six events on the card just swam.
It was knee-deep, but at that the track was not very sticky, and the horses were lucky to get out of the mud.

The lucky horseman of the day, for he captured two races, one with Ray Salazar and the other with Elia, and McQuade rode them both.

The feature of the day was the seasonal handicap in which young Spitz, Lamp Globe, and Elia, were the favorites.
