FOURTEEN LIVES LOST THRU BREAK OF DAM

Wide Stretch of Country Inundated Near San Diego, Cal.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 28.—Fourteen persons were killed and a wide stretch of country was devastated late today. when a dam of the San Diego water system broke in the Otay Valley, south of the Cty, under the strain of flood waters caused by the storm which has been raging here for several days.

Another dam was under a severe strain and its collapse was regarded tonight as a possibility.

DETROIT WOMAN MISSING.

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 28-Mystery surrounds the disappearance here on Wednesday of Miss Ann Doe, 41 years old of Detroit. She was a nervous case at a private hospital on Rideout street and her relatives believe that the wandered away and has been drowned in the Thames River. Her brother, Charles Doe, of Detroit, has been scouring the river banks both east and west of the city for two days. The missing woman formerly lived in
